Iron Lung Kills Polio Victim

Breathing Machine Fails Daytonian, 21

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Michael Myers, a courageous 21-year-old polio victim confined to an iron lung, planned to go to a drive in movie. Instead the machine he depended on to breathe failed and he died.

The end came for Michael Tuesday in his home, where mechanical failure halted his artificial respirator.

Michael's mother, Mrs. Evangeline Myers, said she went into his room and realized the respirator's motor wasn't pulsating properly. She called a Miami Twp. rescue squad and administered mouth-to-mouth breathing, but the fire department resuscitator crew found him dead on arrival.

The Myers kept an automatic auxiliary power generator in their garage in event of a commercial power failure. But it was of no use in this instance—failure of the machine.

Coroner Robert Zipf's office was to return an official verdict today.

Young Myers was the last polio patient unable to breathe without electronic aid on the National Foundation's list for the Dayton area.

He was stricken three years ago just before the start of his senior year in high school. Last summer, however, he graduated from West Carrollton High School after attending some classes and doing the rest of the work at home.

Soblen Drug Case Probed

LONDON (AP) — Scotland Yard's investigation of how fugitive spy Robert A. Soblen got his final dose of drugs was reported near an end today. Detectives said they hope to bring charges soon.

Soblen died in a British hospital Tuesday, five days after taking an overdose of barbiturates to prevent his deportation to serve a life sentence in the United States.

Doctors said the drugs started a series of complications that led to death from exhaustion for the 61-year-old New York psychiatrist. He had been unconscious since the overdose knocked him out in an ambulance on the way from Britain Prison to an airliner bound for New York.

Scotland Yard was called in after it was determined the drug was not of a type stocked at the prison. An inquest begins Thursday. An autopsy report will be given.

City Merchants Will Conduct Own Pumpkin Show Promotions

Circleville merchants will devise and conduct their own promotional activity during Pumpkin Show, according to Nat Lefko, chairman of the Area Chamber of Commerce Retail Merchants Division.

The Pumpkin Show activity, plus holiday store hours, consumed a major portion of a breakfast meeting conducted yesterday at Benny's Restaurant by the Retail Merchants.

Lefko said several merchants have indicated they will stage contests of various nature in line with the Pumpkin Show theme. Others will have limited sidewalk displays and special sales.

Concerning holiday store hours, Lefko said most merchants have shown preference for staying open Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings beginning Nov. 23. They also favored open hours every evening until Christmas starting Dec. 17.

PRELIMINARY plans also were outlined for the annual Santa Claus Parade sponsored by Circleville merchants and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Present plans call for the parade to be held 2 p. m. on Friday following Thanksgiving. Last year the event was conducted in the morning.

The merchants drafted a recommendation to the area Chamber for the appointment of a committee to work on local planning and zoning activity. They suggested three members be named to represent real estate ownership, retailers and general industry.

Taking part in the Tuesday meeting were Retail Division chairman Nat Lefko, Thomas Purcell, Jack Alkire, Charles Schieber, D. E. McDonald, Charles Boggs, Vinton Dorsey, W. Joe Burns and C. O. Schweizer.

Major Crisis Hits Macmillan

Commonwealth Revolts Against Common Mart

LONDON (AP)—A major crisis loomed today for Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservative government after a concerted Commonwealth revolt against Macmillan's plan to join the European Common Market.

Statesmen of at least five countries lined up to back the massive assault loosed Tuesday by eight of their fellow leaders against the prospective terms of Britain's linkup with the six-nation continental bloc.

Only the delegates from Malaya and Cyprus were believed likely to withhold outright censure of Macmillan's policy.

In the face of the demonstrations of overwhelming anxiety, Macmillan ran the risk of imperiling his government if he presses on with his plan.

The British leader has pledged he will take Britain into the European trading and political community only after winning safeguards for the economic interests of his Commonwealth partners.

But almost to a man the leaders of Canada, Pakistan, Ceylon, New Zealand, India, Ghana, Sierra Leone and Australia denounced as unsatisfactory the safeguards negotiated so far.

They also criticized other aspects of the projected arrangements.

Nigeria, Tanganyika, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, and the Central African Federation were expected to join in the attack today.

Marshall Gets Senate's Nod

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has voted 54 to 16 to confirm Thurgood Marshall as a judge on the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals after Southerners fired a final fusillade in opposition to the Negro lawyer's appointment.

At his New York apartment, where his family gathered to celebrate the action, Marshall said: "I appreciate the nomination by President Kennedy and the confirmation by the Senate. I will do my level best to live up to their expectations."

The vote Tuesday came after five hours of debate and weeks of hearings on his qualifications for the second highest level judicial post in the land.

Thirty Democrats and 24 Republicans voted to approve the confirmation. The 16 nays were cast by Southern Democrats from nine states opposing civil rights legislation.

'Plain Talking' To Allies Urged

Strategic Shipping To Cuba Hit by Solons

WASHINGTON (AP) — An administration Senate leader — speaking against a backdrop of Soviet threats over Cuba — has urged stronger pressure on U.S. allies to halt military and strategic shipments to the Communist outpost in the Caribbean.

Some allies have been "putting profit before the larger interests of the free world," charged Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, assistant Democratic leader.

However, the Minnesota senator scoffed Tuesday at the contention of some Republicans that the build-up in Cuba is a threat to the United States. But, he said, it did threaten other Latin American nations and the United States should not "sit idly by and watch the traffic in chains for Cuba."

Humphrey was joined by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., in urging some "plain talking" with U.S. allies. Keating said he had been urging such a course for some time.

In his Senate speech Humphrey said "Castro should know that we will discourage by all diplomatic means the shipment of military and strategic supplies to Cuba via free world transport."

He turned his sharpest fire on "Republican jingoists" he said "have been shouting for an invasion of Cuba."

They know, Humphrey said, that there is "enough American firepower afloat off Cuba at any one moment to destroy every major Communist installation in Cuba in a few hours."

"We know exactly where these installations are, and Castro is well aware of what we know," Humphrey proposed a flat declaration that any Cuban aggression against U.S. ships or installations, or against neighboring nations will be met by force, with or without the support of the Organization of American States.

Spy Soblen's Brother Freed From Prison

WASHINGTON (AP)—Confessed spy Jack Soblen has been freed from federal prison, his release announced just hours after the death of the brother he helped convict as a fellow Soviet agent—Dr. Robert A. Soblen.

The Justice Department said Soblen, 58, was released from the Federal Correctional Institution at Danbury, Conn., Aug. 31. Soblen, 61, died Tuesday in a London hospital after a futile bail-jumping bid for asylum abroad to escape a life prison sentence in the United States.

Soblen was convicted of wartime espionage after a 1961 trial at which Soblen was a key prosecution witness. The brothers spell their names differently.

Soblen was sentenced in 1957 to seven years in prison after pleading guilty to a charge of conspiracy to obtain national defense secrets. His wife, Myra, was sentenced to four years in 1956 on a similar charge.

Soblen and his wife both got time off for good behavior. She was released July 21, 1960.

Mrs. Soblen also testified for the government at Soblen's trial.

5 Face Trial in Killing Of Malformed Baby Girl

LIEGE, Belgium (AP) — Five persons, alleged to have taken part in killing a malformed baby girl last May, are to be tried before a Liege jury, the investigating court announced today.

Raiders Named 'Alpha 66'

Secret Unit Claims Firing on Ships

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Alpha 66, a secret organization pledged to overthrow Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime, claims it carried out a machine gun attack on three vessels in Cuban waters.

After the hit-and-run attack Monday, Alpha 66 said, its raiding party succeeded in turning back Castro helicopters following a 40-mile chase.

Members of Alpha 66, which has its headquarters in Puerto Rico, have not been identified, but one in Miami said five men made the raid.

In a communiqué signed "Alpha 66, Puerto Rico," the group said its men machine gunned two Cuban ships, the San Pascual and the San Blas, and a British freighter, the Newlane.

Havana sources, which claimed the marauder came from the United States, said the San Pascual and the Newlane were attacked, but did not mention the San Blas. No casualties were reported.

Refugee leaders in Miami said the raiding party sailed from Venezuela and a spokesman said there was no return fire from Castro forces.

The attack occurred about dawn at Cape Frances, a small key across from Caibarien, a major port about 210 miles southeast of Havana.

The Alpha 66 communiqué said the attack lasted 50 minutes and added: "Helicopters of the Castro regime pursued the Cubans for 40 miles on the high seas, the chase culminating in a naval battle in which the Communists quickly withdrew."

The raiders returned safely to a place in the Caribbean which is the base of Alpha 66 operations, the dispatch said.

It went on to describe the attack:

"The Newlane, a vessel flying the British flag which was loading sugar for the Communist countries, was machine gunned intensely. The San Pascual, converted into a pontoon with a concrete base many years ago, was boarded, dynamited and strafed. The San Pascual is used as a depository for molasses and ice."

The dispatch said the San Blas was hit by 18 bullets and the British vessel was stuck 13 times.

'Unflinching' Effort Asked

U.S. Must Become Top 'Spacefaring Nation'

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—President Kennedy said today the nation's conscience requires it to lead the world's drive into space. He said peace and security hang in the balance.

Kennedy demanded a "bold and daring and unflinching" effort to land a man on the moon—a goal he has set for this decade.

"We cannot shrink from it now," the President said in a speech prepared for delivery at Rice University Stadium.

The United States, he said, must become "the world's leading spacefaring nation."

Starting the homeward leg of his two-day survey of space facilities, Kennedy said his administration commands bipartisan support in seeking world leadership.

"We are pledged to make it a reality," he said.

Kennedy said the United States is entering a new age of exploration and claimed genuine progress.

Forty of the 45 satellites which have circled the globe during his time in office have been made in this country and they "supplied far more knowledge to the people of the world than those of the Soviet Union," he said.

Although behind the Soviet Union in manned flight, Kennedy asserted "we do not intend to stay behind."

To back up its vow that space will be filled with instruments of knowledge rather than destruction, he said the United States is forced to take the lead.

"In short," he said, "our leadership in science and industry, our hopes for peace and security, our obligations as a first-class country, all require us to make this effort, to solve these mysteries, to solve them for the good of all men, and to become the world's leading spacefaring nation."

Kennedy promised economy-minded skeptics of big spending on space exploration that the government would invest money only when greater returns were guaranteed.

"We cannot afford duplication or waste," he said, "but neither can we afford to lag timidly behind."

Kennedy chose Houston, new home of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's manned space flight center, to expound his philosophy.

He made clear that he is more determined than ever to land a man on the moon. Some critics, including former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, have questioned spending billions in the moon project.

"The challenge is one we are willing to accept, one we are unwilling to postpone, and one we intend to win," Kennedy said.

Kennedy's spot survey of space facilities already bore the promise: "We shall be first."

That was his renewed pledge at Cape Canaveral, Fla., second stop Tuesday on his two-day tour of key space sites.

Officials Find Road Has 2 Speed Limits

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — It all depends on whether you're coming or going.

G. A. Treake, a member of the Norfolk County Board of Supervisors, pointed out to his fellow members Tuesday that one stretch of road in his district has a 35-mile-per-hour speed limit on one side and a 25-mile speed limit on the other.

The board voted to ask the State Highway Department for an explanation.

Westinghouse Plant Resumes Operations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Operations resumed at the Columbus Westinghouse major appliance plant today. The company reported more than half of 2,500 first-shift workers were back at their jobs.

Al Moro, president of Local 746, International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, said he asked members to return to work because they must be on the job before the union "actually can give a three-day strike notice."

Peace Race Gets Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House received today petitions signed by about 90,000 persons pledging support for President Kennedy's proposal for a peace race with the Soviet Union instead of an arms race.

Ohio 'Blue Law' Pro, Con Stands Given in Detail

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—There will be arguments in most Ohio homes before too many more days elapse. But they won't be of the domestic relations variety. They will deal with a proposed amendment to Ohio's constitution. The suggested amendment would modify the legislature's right to adopt so-called Sunday "blue laws."

Two committees have prepared arguments pro and con, and Secretary of State Ted W. Brown is mailing them out by the thousands to practically every household in Ohio.

These are the texts of the arguments as prepared by the committees for statewide distribution: Argument in Favor of the Amendment

This is a proposal to legalize Sunday necessities.

The amendment does not repeal present Sunday closing regulations, but simply brings them up to date.

It legalizes only those specific items which are universally regarded as essential seven days a week. Under some court interpretations, many of these items are now illegal on Sundays.

The present law dates back to 1831, before many of our modern-day essentials were known. Judge can't agree on how it should be applied to today's conditions. The cases in our courts now will take years to litigate, and more are being filed constantly.

Most enforcement authorities have given up the situation as hopeless. The present law is 99 percent unenforced.

The amendment will clarify the law and permit authorities to close down non-essential businesses without cutting off the normal flow of necessities that people must have on Sundays.

Nothing in the amendment will change our Sunday way of life. Every item it contains is something that people need and are now obtaining on Sundays. The amendment simply removes the cloud of illegality that now hangs over these transactions.

No business will be "thrown open" by the amendment. Under the present enforcement policies of most communities, any businessman who wants to open on Sundays may do so now. Closed businesses are closed for economic reasons, not legal ones, and the amendment will not force them open.

A vote against the amendment is a vote to continue the present situation of unfair enforcement, lawlessness, and hypocrisy.

A vote for the amendment is a vote to clear up the Sunday closing confusion and permit orderly enforcement of the law without cutting off 2 modern-day necessities.

Read the amendment. You will see that the items it lists should be available without question.

Vote "yes" on issue 1.

Committee for the amendment

Man Admits Plotting His Own Murder

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police in suburban Mariemont say a Cincinnati man has admitted plotting with a teen-age boy to have himself killed for insurance.

Police charged Melvin Edward Prince, 25, Tuesday night with four counts of filing false police reports.

Investigators said Prince had been found wounded Aug. 1 in the basement of his home. He was bleeding from two stab wounds in the chest, but he told officers he had been hurt accidentally.

Police Chief John Shanks said the story didn't stack up, but Prince, a factory worker, told him he was lonely and unhappy and about eight months ago decided to end his life. He said Prince gave this version of the stabbing.

Prince met a 17-year-old boy and took out two $10,000 insurance policies on his life naming the boy as beneficiary.

He gave the boy a paring knife and told him to stab him in the chest. The boy stabbed him twice, then fled and disposed of the knife.

The boy was turned over to juvenile authorities, and Prince was freed on $500 bond Tuesday night pending a hearing Oct. 1 before Mayor Charles Straley of Mariemont.

No Parking In Driveway, City Decrees

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Somebody complained and the city zoning board ruled Tuesday, with reluctance, that Tony La Vine is violating the law because the only place he has to park at home is in his driveway.

The trouble stems from a decision by La Vine and his wife to convert their garage into a family room. The garage is at one end of the house, facing the street. Tony installed a french door and a window where the garage door was, insulated the walls and built a nice interior. He did most of the work himself and still it cost $700 to $800.

Since the project was completed in May, the La Vines have parked their car on the driveway in front of what was the garage.

A city ordinance says each single-family dwelling must be equipped with a parking space either in a side yard or the back yard. It may be a garage, a carport, or just a paved slab; but it cannot be in front, where Tony's is.

Complicating his problem is the fact the ends of his house come within three feet of the property lines. There is no room to build a driveway to the back.

Spy Soblen's Brother Freed From Prison

WASHINGTON (AP)—Confessed spy Jack Sobel has been freed from federal prison, his release announced just hours after the death of the brother he helped convict as a fellow Soviet agent—Dr. Robert A. Soblen.

The Justice Department said Sobel, 58, was released from the Federal Correctional Institution at Danbury, Conn., Aug. 31. Sobel, 61, died Tuesday in a London hospital after a futile battle-jumping bid for asylum abroad to escape a life prison sentence in the United States.

Sobel was convicted of wartime espionage after a 1961 trial at which Sobel was a key prosecution witness. The brothers spelled their names differently.

Sobel was sentenced in 1957 to seven years in prison after pleading guilty to a charge of conspiracy to obtain national defense secrets. His wife, Myra, was sentenced to four years in 1956 on a similar charge.

Sobel and his wife both got time off for good behavior. She was released July 21, 1960.

Mrs. Sobel also testified for the government at Soblen's trial.

5 Face Trial in Killing Of Malformed Baby Girl

LIEGE, Belgium (AP) — Five persons, alleged to have taken part in killing a malformed baby girl last May, are to be tried before a Liege jury, the investigating court announced today.

The trial is expected to open in November.

The baby's mother said she took the drug thalidomide during pregnancy.

Doctor Draft Hinted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The defense Department has warned it may have to resort to the doctor draft again unless it gets enough volunteers to make up shortage of about 1,000 general practice medical officers.

NLRB Official Suggests GE Voting Results Be Accepted

John C. Getreu of the National Labor Relations Board in Cincinnati recommended today that the NLRB accept the results of a collective bargaining election in which workers at the Circleville General Electric Co. plant voted to reject two unions seeking recognition.

The vote, taken last June 29, showed 173 votes for the International Union of Electrical Radio and Machine Workers (AFL-CIO); 45 for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (AFL - CIO) and 403 against representation by either union.

The International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine workers filed objections to the results, claiming employees were intimidated by company officials "to make it impossible to hold a fair election."

Getreu held that several complaints cited by the union occurred "outside the crucial period" of the election and thus could not be considered. He said the union submitted no evidence to support other charges. He said one complaint amounted to pre-election interference but it was ruled out on the grounds it was not coercive and was limited to only two of approximately 652 eligible voters.

Once Around Roundtown

INTERESTED in figures? . . . There is approximately 1,900 pounds of sand, 1,400 pounds of gravel and 517 pounds of cement in one yard of concrete. . . . Add 200 pounds of water more or less and you come up with an approximate weight of 4,017 pounds for one yard of wet mix. . . .

The local ready-mix cement plant delivered 84 yards of cement for the deck that was poured yesterday at the First National Bank building being constructed at the corner of Court and Main Streets.

Simple multiplication shows that nearly 169 tons of mix went into the deck that will form part of the roof and the second floor of the building.

THE COOL, mild weather Pickaway Countians have been enjoying for the past few days is about to come to an end, according to tomorrow's outlook. . . . The forecast calls for temperatures to climb to a hot and humid 90 degrees with cloudy skies.

LAST FRIDAY'S entry in Ye Olde Photo Album, a group of school children, was identified yesterday by Mrs. John C. Goeller, 836 Dartmouth Drive. . . . Mrs. Goeller says the picture was taken sometime prior to 1920 at the Duvall School in Harrison Twp. Three of the students were identified as her relatives, two nieces and a cousin. They are Mrs. Harry Forsyth, Columbus, Mrs. John Eakin, near Canal Winchester, and the former Dorothy Baum of Duvall. . . . Mrs. Goeller was uncertain as to the exact year the picture was taken.

Peace Race Gets Backing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House received today petitions signed by about 90,000 persons pledging support for President Kennedy's proposal for a peace race with the Soviet Union instead of an arms race.

Nursing Home Chief Assails Rhodes' Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — E. Leo Glass, president of the Glass nursing and convalescent home, Cincinnati, and past president of the Ohio Nursing Home Association, assailed Auditor James A. Rhodes' plan for "Golden Age villages" today as "totally irresponsible."

Speaking as public affairs chairman of the nursing home operators' state group, Glass contended that Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor, is trying to "put the state in the nursing home business" in an invasion of private business.

He challenged Rhodes' figures, both on the number of custodial-care patients who could be released from mental institutions and on the existing facilities now available for this.

Glass said the state now has 3,000 to 4,000 beds available "in private, tax-paying nursing homes." He said Rhodes' estimate of 11,000 patients who could be released is too high—that the number is only 3,909 who have been certified by doctors for release plus some 888 others.

"If Mr. Rhodes will meet with us to explain how constructing buildings and invading private business will solve this problem, we will be happy to listen," Glass said. "However, we don't feel that he can."

Officials Find Road Has 2 Speed Limits

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — It all depends on whether you're coming or going.

G. A. Treake, a member of the Norfolk County Board of Supervisors, pointed out to his fellow members Tuesday that one stretch of road in his district has a 35-mile-per-hour speed limit on one side and a 25-mile speed limit on the other.

The board voted to ask the State Highway Department for an explanation.

Westinghouse Plant Resumes Operations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Operations resumed at the Columbus Westinghouse major appliance plant today. The company reported more than half of 2,500 first-shift workers were back at their jobs.

Al Moro, president of Local 746, International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, said he asked members to return to work because they must be on the job before the union "actually can give a three-day strike notice."

Laurelville Firemen Ready For Eighth Annual Festival

The 8th annual Fall Festival sponsored by the Laurelville Volunteer Fire Department will open Sept. 18 for a four-day stand. Plenty of activity is on the agenda.

Starting the festival in full motion 9 p. m. Wednesday will be the annual selection of a "Firemen's Queen." The lucky winner will represent Laurelville at the Circleville Pumpkin Show next month.

Candidates for the queen's post are Barbara Huffman, Janet Poling, Linda Unger, Carol West, Karen Hulse, Pamela Patterson, Linda Kempton and Judy Swackhamer. Trophies will be awarded to the winner and the first two runners-up.

Activity on Thursday will include a Variety Talent show starting at 9 p. m. Entries must register at least one hour before the contest. Winner will receive tickets to the various rides at the festival.

Also on the Thursday schedule is a Tractor Pull slated to start at 6 p. m. in a field at the rear of the Laurelville Grain and Mill Co. The event will be open to local farmers only.

Classes in the pull will be zero to 5,000 pounds for the lightweight and 5,001 to 7,000 pounds in the heavyweight. No entry fee is required and trophies will be awarded.

A Pony Pull is due 6:30 p. m. Friday. At 9 p. m. the same day a "Price Is Right" contest will be conducted, with prizes donated by local merchants. Registration must be completed one hour before the event.

Saturday events will spotlight a Pie and Cake contest and the Annual Parade at 5 p. m.

The pie and cake entries are to be at the fire house no later than noon Saturday. Following the judging, the pastries will be auctioned off, with proceeds going to the fire department.

Spokesmen said various bands will perform each day of the festival.

All proceeds from the annual show will be directed to the Laurelville fire unit. Last year funds from the festival aided in the purchase of a new tank for the department.

Deaths

MR. HARRY V. HEATH
Mr. Harry V. Heath, 72, New Holland, died 12:45 a. m. today at University Hospital, Columbus.

He was born May 21, 1890, at Mt. Sterling, the son of William and Lucy Norris Heath.

Mr. Heath, a retired farmer, lived most of his life in the New Holland community. He was a member of the New Holland Methodist Church and the Men's Bible Class, past master of the New Holland Masonic Lodge and held offices in other masonic bodies and a member of the Lions Club.

Services will be 1:30 p. m. Friday at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, New Holland, with the Rev. Glenn Robinson and the Rev. Orlo Freshly officiating. Burial will be in the New Holland Cemetery.

Masonic services will be 7 p. m. tomorrow at the funeral home beginning 2 p. m. tomorrow.

New Officers Elected by Demo Women

The Pickaway County Democratic Women's Club held its annual election of officers last night in the basement of the local BPO Elk Lodge.

Mrs. Joseph Brink, Route 3, was elected president of the political club. Other officers include Mrs. Walter May, Mrs. Harry Wright and Mrs. Forrest Easterday, vice presidents; Miss Mary K. Kennedy, treasurer; Mrs. Scott Radcliff, recording secretary; Mrs. Dan Grubb, corresponding secretary; Doris Sniff, financial secretary; Miss Jo Ann Brink, pianist; Mrs. Scott Radcliff, reporter; Mae Neff, historian; Martha Purcell, Frances Young and Leona Riegel, trustees.

The new president presented Mrs. Martha Purcell, the outgoing president, with a gift for her services to the club. The group sang and dedicated "America the Beautiful" to the outgoing officers.

It was announced that the annual fall meeting of the Federated Democratic Women of Ohio is to be held Sept. 21-22 at the Neil House, Columbus.

A HIGHLIGHT of the convention will be a State Candidates Dinner at Veterans Memorial Auditorium at 7 p. m., Sept. 21. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will be the guest speaker at the dinner.

Delegates to the convention are: Mrs. Walter May, Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Francis McGinnis, Mrs. Joseph Brink and Mrs. Carl Purcell. Alternates are Mrs. Galen Mowery, Mrs. Eli Hedges, Mrs. Bryan Custer, Miss Mary Kennedy and Mrs. Emmitt Ebenback.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday in the Democratic Headquarters, W. Main St.

Stock Market Pushes Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—Electronics, oils and saving and loan holding company issues attracted enough support to push the stock market higher early this afternoon.

The trading pace remained subdued and most gains were fractional among the key stocks. There were many small losers, too.

Prices headed upward almost from the opening, continuing Tuesday's spotty improvement.

Market analysts expressed reservations about the latest reports on record corporation profits and personal income but evidently official forecasts of good business at least through Christmas inspired some degree of confidence.

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 2 at 223.3 with industrials ahead 4, rails off 2 and utilities up 2.

Doctors Sew Boy's Leg Back in Place

WEST ISLIP, N.Y. (AP)—Doctors sewed back a boy's left leg at the thigh Tuesday night in an operation they said could not have been performed five years ago.

The boy, Mark Turco, 10, of nearby Babylon was in grave condition from shock and loss of blood.

Mark was brought to Good Samaritan hospital in this Long Island community late Tuesday. His left leg and arm had been broken when he was hit by the family car at home.

Doctors said the accident broke the leg at the thigh bone, leaving it connected only by segments of tissue. They said they joined the thigh bone with a metal pin, repaired a severed artery, and sewed together torn muscles.

And in Boston, a team of doctors watched 13-year-old Everett Knowles Jr. today for the first signs of success in rejoining nerves in his right arm, severed from his body last May 23.

The former Little League pitcher, from suburban Somerville, underwent a 6½-hour operation Tuesday at Massachusetts General Hospital.

A team of 11 surgeons patched together four major nerve trunks, parted as the lad's arm was ripped off when he was caught between a moving freight car and a wall.

The arm, carried to the hospital separately when the boy was injured, was stitched back on, and blood circulation was restored.

If the nerve patching job works as well, it will be the first time in medical history that a severed limb has been restored to full or partial use, doctors said at a news conference.

'Big John' Found; Boy, 11, Is Happy

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP)—Meet Big John. He is 5 feet 6, ugly and crawls on all fours.

Mrs. Ernest Lasell met him Tuesday.

"First I thought it was an alligator," she said when she recovered. "Then I remembered a neighbor boy, Billy Osborne, said he had lost his pet iguana."

"Big John," yelled Billy when he sighted the big lizard. "Boy, am I glad to see you!"

"Why?" asked Mrs. Lasell.

"Because I like to rattle with him," said Billy, who is 11. Big John is 3.

Teamsters Halt Food Deliveries

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Delivery of more than $100,000 worth of fruit and produce to independent grocers, restaurants, school cafeterias and state institutions was halted today by a Teamsters Union strike.

Supermarket chains were not affected.

The walkout began shortly after midnight, following failure of Teamsters Local 413 and the Columbus Wholesale Fruit and Produce Dealers Association Inc. to agree on an initial contract.

Drivers and warehousemen for 25 commission houses are involved. Pickets appeared at the commission houses today.

Northridge Sewer Assessments Open for Public Inspection

Assessments for the Northridge Storm Sewer program are now on file in the office of the Clerk of City Council, located at City Auditor Marv Turner's headquarters in City Hall.

The assessment costs are available for inspection and examination by interested persons. Approximately 188 personal properties and lots owned by building firms are included in the assessment list.

Any objections to the assessments must be made in writing filed in the office of the Council Clerk by Oct. 15. The amount to be assessed has been set at $50,248.

The Northridge project was completed here several weeks ago.

THE SEWER job was initiated under an old law which specified that notification be made by scheduled newspaper publications. However, a new law which came into effect the first of the year requires that estimated assessment notices to appropriate property owners be made by mail prior to construction.

The Northridge assessment notice is scheduled for publication in the Sept. 14 and 21 editions of The Herald. The first was carried on Sept. 7.

Despite All Bluster, Khrush Seen Reluctant for Showdown

WASHINGTON (AP)—Although Soviet Premier Khrushchev evidently intends to maintain East-West tensions at a high level, he now seems to be very reluctant to force an early showdown on the future of West Berlin.

This point stands out sharply in the blustery Soviet warning on Tuesday to the United States against any attack on Cuba lest it plunge the world into nuclear war.

Sandwiched in among the long, propaganda packed paragraphs asserting strong Soviet support for the Castro regime was a reference to the Berlin situation which struck officials here as extremely interesting and probably very significant.

In this brief section the Soviet government said once again that the United States, Britain and France must abandon their occupation position in West Berlin. This position "shall be liquidated," Russia declared emphatically.

The statement then noted that U.S. congressional elections will be held in November and that U.S.-Soviet talks on Berlin recently came to a pause. With the elections coming up, the statement said, it is difficult for the United States "to conduct negotiations on a German treaty" and the Soviet government "is prepared to take this into consideration."

Thus, Khrushchev seemed to be backing away from a showdown, using the argument that negotiations would be difficult for the United States in an unsettled pre-election atmosphere.

However, officials here see no connection between the elections and U.S.-Soviet discussion on Berlin. For one thing, no one expects the Kennedy administration's attitude to be any different after the elections from what it is now.

Moreover, preliminary discussions with Moscow ground to a halt when the Russians rebuffed all efforts by Secretary of State Dean Rusk to turn the talks to specific issues.

Continued negotiations along the line he proposed might have led to compromise solutions on some of the Berlin problems, but would have required that Russia recognize the right of the Western

Mariner 2 Travels 2½ Million Miles

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mariner 2, racing out toward a close-up glimpse of Venus next Dec. 14, is functioning perfectly and at 11 a. m. Tuesday was 2,548,905 miles from the earth.

Reporting this, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the spacecraft, launched Aug. 27, is sending back clear radio signals.

As of 11 a. m., Mariner was 55,030,917 miles from Venus, NASA said. But in order to come possibly within 9,000 miles of the planet next Dec. 14, the spacecraft has to go 177,651,000 miles yet to go. This is because Mariner's target, Venus, is a moving one.

Hamilton Commission Turns Down Jetport

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Hamilton County commissioners have turned down unanimously proposed participation in a Southwest Ohio regional airport authority which planned a $125,000 survey of the potential use of a jetport halfway between Cincinnati and Dayton.

The commissioners said the chief reason for their decision was last week's unfavorable report on the project by the Air Transport Association, representing five airlines that might use the facility.

Laurelville Firemen Ready For Eighth Annual Festival

The 8th annual Fall Festival sponsored by the Laurelville Volunteer Fire Department will open Sept. 18 for a four-day stand. Plenty of activity is on the agenda.

Starting the festival in full motion 9 p. m. Wednesday will be the annual selection of a "Firemen's Queen." The lucky winner will represent Laurelville at the Circleville Pumpkin Show next month.

Candidates for the queen's post are Barbara Huffman, Janet Poling, Linda Unger, Carol West, Karen Hulse, Pamela Patterson, Linda Kempton and Judy Swackhamer. Trophies will be awarded to the winner and the first two runners-up.

Activity on Thursday will include a Variety Talent show starting at 9 p. m. Entries must register at least one hour before the contest. Winner will receive tickets to the various rides at the festival.

ALSO ON the Thursday schedule is a Tractor Pull slated to start at 8 p. m. in a field at the rear of the Laurelville Grain and Mill Co. The event will be open to local farmers only.

Classes in the pull will be zero to 5,000 pounds for the lightweight and 5,001 to 7,000 pounds in the heavyweight. No entry fee is required and trophies will be awarded.

A Pony Pull is due 6:30 p. m. Friday. At 9 p. m. the same day a "Price Is Right" contest will be conducted, with prizes donated by local merchants. Registration must be completed one hour before the event.

Saturday events will spotlight a Pie and Cake contest and the Annual Parade at 5 p. m.

The pie and cake entries are to be at the fire house no later than noon Saturday. Following the judging, the pastries will be auctioned off, with proceeds going to the fire department.

Spokesmen said various bands will perform each day of the festival.

All proceeds from the annual show will be directed to the Laurelville fire unit. Last year funds from the festival aided in the purchase of a new tank for the department.

Deaths

MR. HARRY V. HEATH

Mr. Harry V. Heath, 72, New Holland, died 12:45 a. m. today at University Hospital, Columbus.

He was born May 21, 1890, at Mt. Sterling, the son of William and Lucy Norris Heath.

Mr. Heath, a retired farmer, lived most of his life in the New Holland community. He was a member of the New Holland Methodist Church and the Men's Bible Class, past master of the New Holland Masonic Lodge and held offices in other masonic bodies and a member of the Lions Club.

Services will be 1:30 p. m. Friday at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, New Holland, with the Rev. Glenn Robinson and the Rev. Orlo Freshly officiating. Burial will be in the New Holland Cemetery.

Masonic services will be 7 p. m. tomorrow at the funeral home beginning 2 p. m. tomorrow.

New Officers Elected by Demo Women

The Pickaway County Democratic Women's Club held its annual election of officers last night in the basement of the local BPO Elk Lodge.

Mrs. Joseph Brink, Route 3, was elected president of the political club. Other officers include Mrs. Walter May, Mrs. Harry Wright and Mrs. Forrest Easterday, vice presidents; Miss Mary K. Kennedy, treasurer; Mrs. Scott Radcliff, recording secretary; Mrs. Dan Grubb, corresponding secretary; Doris Siniff, financial secretary; Miss Jo Ann Brink, pianist; Mrs. Scott Radcliff, reporter; Mae Neff, historian; Martha Purcell, Frances Young and Leona Riegel, trustees.

The new president presented Mrs. Martha Purcell, the outgoing president, with a gift for her services to the club. The group sang and dedicated "America the Beautiful" to the outgoing officers.

It was announced that the annual fall meeting of the Federated Democratic Women of Ohio is to be held Sept. 21-22 at the Neil House, Columbus.

A HIGHLIGHT of the convention will be a State Candidates Dinner at Veterans Memorial Auditorium at 7 p. m., Sept. 21. Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will be the guest speaker at the dinner.

Delegates to the convention are: Mrs. Walter May, Mrs. Robert Young, Mrs. Francis McGinnis, Mrs. Joseph Brink and Mrs. Carl Purcell. Alternates are Mrs. Galen Mowery, Mrs. Eli Hedges, Mrs. Bryan Custer, Miss Mary Kennedy and Mrs. Emmitt Ebenhack.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday in the Democratic Headquarters, W. Main St.

Stock Market Pushes Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—Electronics, oils and saving and loan holding company issues attracted enough support to push the stock market higher early this afternoon.

The trading pace remained subdued and most gains were fractional among the key stocks. There were many small losers, too.

Prices headed upward almost from the opening, continuing Tuesday's spotty improvement.

Market analysts expressed reservations about the latest reports on record corporation profits and personal income but evidently official forecasts of good business at least through Christmas inspired some degree of confidence.

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 2 at 223.3 with industrials ahead 4, rails off 2 and utilities up 2.

Doctors Sew Boy's Leg Back in Place

WEST ISLIP, N.Y. (AP)—Doctors sewed back a boy's left leg at the thigh Tuesday night in an operation they said could not have been performed five years ago.

The boy, Mark Turco, 10, of nearby Babylon was in grave condition from shock and loss of blood.

Mark was brought to Good Samaritan hospital in this Long Island community late Tuesday. His left leg and arm had been broken when he was hit by the family car at home.

Doctors said the accident broke the leg at the thigh bone, leaving it connected only by segments of tissue. They said they joined the thigh bone with a metal pin, repaired a severed artery, and sewed together torn muscles.

And in Boston, a team of doctors watched 13-year-old Everett Knowles Jr. today for the first signs of success in rejoining nerves in his right arm, severed from his body last May 23.

The former Little League pitcher, from suburban Somerville, underwent a 6½-hour operation Tuesday at Massachusetts General Hospital.

A team of 11 surgeons patched together four major nerve trunks, parted as the lad's arm was ripped off when he was caught between a moving freight car and a wall.

The arm, carried to the hospital separately when the boy was injured, was stitched back on, and blood circulation was restored.

If the nerve patching job works as well, it will be the first time in medical history that a severed limb has been restored to full or partial use, doctors said at a news conference.

'Big John' Found; Boy, 11, Is Happy

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP)—Meet Big John. He is 5 feet 6, ugly and crawls on all fours.

Mrs. Ernest Lasell met him Tuesday.

"First I thought it was an alligator," she said when she recovered. "Then I remembered a neighbor boy, Billy Osborne, said he had lost his pet iguana."

"Big John," yelled Billy when he sighted the big lizard. "Boy, am I glad to see you!"

"Why?" asked Mrs. Lasell. "Because I like to rattle with him," said Billy, who is 11. Big John is 3.

Teamsters Halt Food Deliveries

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Delivery of more than $100,000 worth of fruit and produce to independent grocers, restaurants, school cafeterias and state institutions was halted today by a Teamsters Union strike.

Supermarket chains were not affected.

The walkout began shortly after midnight, following failure of Teamsters Local 413 and the Columbus Wholesale Fruit and Produce Dealers Association Inc. to agree on an initial contract.

Drivers and warehousemen for 25 commission houses are involved. Pickets appeared at the commission houses today.

Northridge Sewer Assessments Open for Public Inspection

Assessments for the Northridge Storm Sewer program are now on file in the office of the Clerk of City Council, located at City Auditor Marvene Turner's headquarters in City Hall.

The assessment costs are available for inspection and examination by interested persons. Approximately 188 personal properties and lots owned by building firms are included in the assessment list.

Any objections to the assessments must be made in writing filed in the office of the Council Clerk by Oct. 13. The amount to be assessed has been set at $50,248.

The Northridge project was completed here several weeks ago.

THE SEWER job was initiated under an old law which specified that notification be made by scheduled newspaper publications. However, a new law which came into effect the first of the year requires that estimated assessment notices to appropriate property owners be made by mail prior to construction.

The Northridge assessment notice is scheduled for publication in the Sept. 14 and 21 editions of The Herald. The first was carried on Sept. 7.

Despite All Bluster, Khrush Seen Reluctant for Showdown

WASHINGTON (AP)—Although Soviet Premier Khrushchev evidently intends to maintain East-West tensions at a high level, he now seems to be very reluctant to force an early showdown on the future of West Berlin.

This point stands out sharply in the blustery Soviet warning on Tuesday to the United States against any attack on Cuba lest it plunge the world into nuclear war.

Sandwiched in among the long, propaganda packed paragraphs asserting strong Soviet support for the Castro regime was a reference to the Berlin situation which struck officials here as extremely interesting and probably very significant.

In this brief section the Soviet government said once again that the United States, Britain and France must abandon their occupation position in West Berlin. This position "shall be liquidated," Russia declared emphatically.

The statement then noted that U.S. congressional elections will be held in November and that U.S.-Soviet talks on Berlin recently came to a pause. With the elections coming up, the statement said, it is difficult for the United States "to conduct negotiations on a German treaty" and the Soviet government "is prepared to take this into consideration."

Thus, Khrushchev seemed to be backing away from a showdown, using the argument that negotiations would be difficult for the United States in an unsettled pre-election atmosphere.

However, officials here see no connection between the elections and U.S.-Soviet discussion on Berlin. For one thing, no one expects the Kennedy administration's attitude to be any different after the elections from what it is now.

Moreover, preliminary discussions with Moscow ground to a halt when the Russians rebuffed all efforts by Secretary of State Dean Rusk to turn the talks to specific issues.

Continued negotiations along the line he proposed might have led to compromise solutions on some of the Berlin problems, but would have required that Russia recognize the right of the Western powers to maintain their troops in West Berlin indefinitely. This Russia is unwilling to do.

Some of the best informed authorities here think that Khrushchev now understands that the United States, Britain and France do not intend to sign any treaty or make any deal which would destroy the basis of their present right, dating back to the Allied victory over Germany in 1945, to be in Berlin.

Mariner 2 Travels 2½ Million Miles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mariner 2, racing out toward a close-up glimpse of Venus next Dec. 14, is functioning perfectly and at 11 a.m. Tuesday was 2,548,905 miles from the earth.

Reporting this, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the spacecraft, launched Aug. 27, is sending back clear radio signals.

As of 11 a.m. Mariner was 55,030,917 miles from Venus, NASA said. But in order to come possibly within 9,000 miles of the planet next Dec. 14, the spacecraft has about 177,651,000 miles yet to go. This is because Mariner's target, Venus, is a moving one.

Hamilton Commission Turns Down Jetport

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Hamilton County commissioners have turned down unanimously proposed participation in a Southwest Ohio regional airport authority which planned a $125,000 survey of the potential use of a jetport halfway between Cincinnati and Dayton.

The commissioners said the chief reason for their decision was last week's unfavorable report on the project by the Air Transport Association, representing five airlines that might use the facility.

Growing into Something Better

One of the great tragedies of life is that too many persons give up too soon.

Matthew Arnold wrote in "Culture and Anarchy": "The great thing is to discover our best selves and to seek to affirm nothing but that; not . . . resting satisfied with a self which comes uppermost long before our best self, and offering that with blind energy."

We see it all about us. The brilliant student drops out at Grade 10. The man who has the capacity to become a skilled workman gives up and becomes an unskilled workman. The man who has been endowed with a high intelligence and aptitude for learning, settles for a career unworthy of his gifts.

How do we know when our best self has emerged? There is a paradox here. As soon as we settle for our best self, we will have settled for something inferior to our best. There is the story of the conceited college freshman who came to realize how obnoxious his superiority complex was to persons he would like to have for friends.

He took stock of himself and reformed. Several years later he was able to say: "I used to be so conceited I was one of the nastiest persons in the college. But I got over it and I am now one of the nicest fellows in the whole university."

The fact is, the self-satisfied person is inadequate. As long as we live and breathe we have to grow into something better, for the best self is the growing, improving person.

Knowledge Can Be Dangerous

As if space exploration by humans wasn't difficult enough, now men have made it even more hazardous. They have added another radiation belt to the natural Van Allen belt that surrounds the earth.

Last July 9 the U. S. set off a thermonuclear blast at high altitude. The scientists had its effects all figured — on paper. It would spread radioactive debris in a limited belt that would soon collide with the earth's atmosphere and disintegrate.

But the results were somewhat different. The belt did not disintegrate and so now the world has a 1½ million electron volt band of radioactivity whirling about it. This is severe enough so that it has destroyed solar cells on three earth satellites.

But most serious, it would be lethal to any man passing through it unprotected. And it will pose a problem to be overcome by scientists trying to rocket men into outer space. The new radiation belt, according to latest calculations, will last for many years.

The problem here, as in other instances, is one of man knowing a little bit but not enough. A little knowledge is a dangerous thing, someone once said. How true this is men discover every time they probe the frontier of understanding of the world about them.

Remarks To Irk a Pro Gridder

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a pro football player gets tired of hearing:

"Let's put in Tiger McGurk—the games already lost anyway."

"He eats enough during the training season to last him all year."

"They nicknamed him 'three-yard McGurk' because, whenever he carries the ball, he never loses less than three yards."

"The only time he stays on his feet is when they play the national anthem."

"What we needed was a head blocker, and what we wound up with was a blockhead."

"Gee, it's nice of you to offer me this pass to watch you play in your next game, Tiger. But frankly, I'd rather stay home and rake the back yard."

"Sure, it's okay for you to hold down an outside job, Tiger. But that doesn't mean you can try to sell life insurance to the referee during a game."

"It's true he got off to a bad start. At the first practice they told him to tackle the dummy—and he tackled the coach."

"I wouldn't say he's delicate, but every time he bruises a hangnail he heads for the sidelines."

"The only reason we haven't already traded you to Dubuque, Tiger, is that they don't have a team in the league."

"How's this for a trick play—let Tiger go out for a pass. The other team will never think we're that crazy."

"There's only one thing really wrong with McGurk. He's got a million-dollar body with a 10-cent mind."

"It has been so long since they put him into a game he's collecting unemployment insurance."

"Tiger, we've got to do something to get back some of the dough we put into you. How about you helping sell hot dogs between halves?"

"Here's a compass, McGurk. Now, remember, if you ever get your hands on the ball—run due north."

"Where's that doctor, Tiger just fell off the bench again."

"Wake up, Tiger. The games over."

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP)—A lot is riding on the new car models this year. The nation's merchants are optimistic about beating last fall's sales volume in the stores. But total retail sales will depend on how fast the new cars move out of the dealers' showrooms.

Total retail sales volume will have a lot to do in determining how the economy looks to the policy makers in Washington as they prepare their proposals for the next Congress. And final consumer sales tell the manufacturers what to expect and how high to set production schedules — and whether to hire or lay off workers.

So consumer-watching is a widely followed occupation, especially in time of uncertainty like these.

The rise and fall of the government's retail sales chart is watched closely. But there are those who think some improvement would make it a better tool for decision making.

A drop in auto sales is credited for the slight dip total retail sales took in the Commerce Department's retail chart in August. Seasonally adjusted the August sales were $19.6 billion, compared with the record July high of $19.7 billion.

In contrast the sales of nondurable goods rose to a high in August of $13.4 billion, up 1 per cent from July.

The new car models are expected to boost auto sales as dealers display them in the next few weeks—the question is: how much?

In the stores, all is optimism as fall approaches. The National Retail Merchants Association says a poll of 211 executives heading stores doing a $3-billion annual business show 71 per cent expected sales in the second half of 1962 to top year ago figures by at least 5 per cent.

They feel that consumers have the money and aren't afraid to spend it, although they may be more choosy in their purchases than some stores and some manufacturers will like.

The Department of Commerce adjusts its various figures seasonally. That is, it makes allowance for changing consumer habits—the time of year they buy this or that, the time they repay bills instead of shopping, and for the average weather conditions.

But a couple of New York University professors, Dr. William C.

Freund and Dr. Robert A. Kavesh, think the seasonal adjustments could be improved, if merchants, manufacturers and the public are to get a true picture of how things are faring with the economy.

Since unseasonable weather is one of the chief culprits not only in store traffic but often in industrial production, transportation and home building, the predictions frequently go askew.

"There is no reason why the Department of Commerce, together with the U.S. Weather Bureau, cannot issue a weather index which compares actual weather conditions with average weather conditions for geographic regions of the country. Such an index would provide a ready means for modifying the seasonal factors used in adjusting economic time series," the professors say.

Retail sales, housing starts, and other figures so adjusted would give the public a much clearer picture of what actually happened, rather than what should have happened under average weather conditions. Since the public tends to extremes of pessimism or optimism when the official figures don't come up to or exceed expectations, improvements in the methods of seasonal part in setting public psychology, and thus, to a degree, the economy.

"THE WORLD'S TWO greatest point-killers," declares Don Quinn, "as everyone must know, are waiters and telephones. Most of us have experienced that shattering moment, when, lunching with somebody we want to make sure realizes we have a great sense of humor, we've crept up to the punchline of our very best story, only to have the waiter barge upon the scene, demanding, "Who gets the roast beef hash?"

Sister Annette writes about the time she took some third-graders in her parish to visit the zoo, then asked them to write a paragraph about the animals that interested them most. Wrote one moppet: "The animal that interested me most was the Warning Stand Back. Every time we looked at it he spit at us."

A resigned wife pointed to her husband stretched out in the garden hammock. "My husband," she explained, "believes that to keep healthy, every man must have a hobby. His is letting the birds watch him."

A 10-year-old girl, described by her doting mother as "temperamental," raised particular tantrums every time she was told it was time to go to bed. "I hate bed," she exclaimed one night. "If I took bed in school it would be my worst subject."

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M. D.

Dear Doctor: I have sinus trouble every winter. Can anything but a change in climate help?

Mrs. R. V. (Conn.)

Dear Mrs. V.: Don't make a move without consulting your doctor!

Prescriptions for mucus-dissolving nose spray, mucus-digesting enzyme chemicals, decongestant tablets and antibiotic germ-killers can turn winter into summer for infected sinuses.

Overheated homes dry delicate lining into parched, cracked fertile soil for germs. Every day, each room needs the vapor from a gallon of water.

If you have sinus trouble, it's worth getting all steamed up—during winter.

Dear Doctor: My husband has chronic (rheumatoid) arthritis. Will two cans of beer daily hurt his stiff, painful joints?

Mrs. W. W. (Pa.)

Dear Mrs. W.: Not if he gulps down a well-balanced diet, too, and doesn't gain weight. Extra pounds strain stiff, painful joints. Those two cans a day may actually keep him from getting stiff. They dull pain, making it easier to limber up joints!

Dear Doctor: I don't get carsick or seasick. Amusement park rides, like roller coasters, make me queasy. What can I take to keep from getting sick?

Miss O. F. (Ohio)

Dear Miss F.: Take a rain check on those amusement park rides! Medicines, like Dramamine R, Bonamine R and Mother Sills' Seasick Pills, might help. But why take medicine when you don't have to?

Dear Doctor: Our two-year-old bites people. Neither spanking, biting back nor vinegar mouth rinses stop him.

Can anything help?

Mrs. R. L. (Mass.)

Dear Mrs. L.: Don't bite back or he'll assume this is normal behavior.

Keep to one fast, immediate punishment. Don't vary the penalty. See that he enjoys plenty of outdoor play. After working off excess energy outside, he may not want to sink those choppers into anything except food!

Dear Doctor: What causes yellow perspiration?

Mrs. L. B. (Tex.)

Dear Mrs. B.: Probably skin germs that manufacture colorful chemicals in ordinary sweat. Black, brown, red, blue and yellow droplets have all been seen dripping from different faces. And from other areas, too.

Bathing and phisoHex R or hexachlorophene liquid soap USP should destroy germs and rinse away color!

Demo Split Has Widened

The Founding Fathers gave the people the opportunity to declare themselves on government policies and personnel every second year. Although a Presidential term is four years, and may be repeated for a second period of four years, he comes before the people every second year for judgement. The 1962 campaign concerns not only Senators, Representatives and Governors who come up for election but also the President.

In Parliamentary countries, such as Great Britain, a vote of confidence or lack of confidence can be indicated either by the defeat of government measures or by the by-elections; that is, the filling of seats in Parliament which for one reason or another have become vacant.

In the United States, there is no method by which a government falls because we do not elect a government in the Parliamentary sense; we elect a President and Vice President for stated terms—four year terms. Come what may, they remain in office.

In the present Congress, the Democrats have a majority which normally would support the President's program for legislation. This has not proved to be so. So far as one can discern — without taking recourse to polls — President Kennedy remains a popular figure with the people. Nevertheless, the Democratic Party is splitting up in an amazing manner.

In New York City, for instance, the Reformers, led by Governor Lehman and Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, won a victory in the last Mayoralty election. They killed off the State Boss, Carmine De Sapio, but they managed to split the party. This has been aggravated by the search for a gubernatorial candidate. To discover the right man, the leadership forsook all political experience and knowledge and resorted to a pollster who came up with an obscure personality who had been in business with the pollster.

The result is that the Democratic split has widened. Secretly it was argued that because the President is a Roman Catholic and the Mayor is a Roman Catholic, the candidate for Governor should be a Jew. This is an insult to both the Roman Catholics and the Jews. Jews are sensitive about being cats-paws for politicians. In recent years, two popular and respected Jews were nominated for Mayor of New York, Judge Jonah Goldstein and Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz. Both were defeated.

But when the pollster, Louis Harris, produced a poll indicating that the hardly known Robert Morgenthau could defeat Nelson Rockefeller for Governor, it made everyone laugh. It was so obviously wrong. Whereupon the split in the Democratic Party widened.

In Massachusetts, the struggle between Edward McCormack and Ted Kennedy has produced a bitterness which will reflect itself in Congress. The Speaker of the House should not have been made a personal antagonist.

In the so-called Solid South, the split is on an ideological basis, namely, the opposition to the Administration's attitude toward desegregation. The Solid South is Democratic because of the Civil War and the Ku Klux Klan during the Reconstruction. On other questions, the South is not so solid.

Now a Democratic Administration has smashed the solidity of the South. Texas has elected a Republican Senator. There is no telling what will happen in the 1962 Congressional Election, but whatever happens, the Democrats are antagonistic to this Administration.

It may be that the President is pursuing a policy of ignoring opposition when he is sure that he is in the right. That is a sound position to take in a second term; in a first term a President usually seeks to hold the Congress with his party in the majority and to arrange to be re-elected. Surely if the President is concerned only with re-election, he would not have opened the way for Nelson Rockefeller's victory in the current gubernatorial election by permitting the leadership to support a totally unknown candidate, Robert Morgenthau, whose principal virtue is that he is the grandson of our former Ambassador to Turkey and whose father was made Secretary of the Treasury by Franklin D. Roosevelt — an inept appointment as it turned out to be.

Growing into Something Better

One of the great tragedies of life is that too many persons give up too soon. Matthew Arnold wrote in "Culture and Anarchy": "The great thing is to discover our best selves and to seek to affirm nothing but that; not . . . resting satisfied with a self which comes uppermost long before our best self, and offering that with blind energy."

We see it all about us. The brilliant student drops out at Grade 10. The man who has the capacity to become a skilled workman gives up and becomes an unskilled workman. The man who has been endowed with a high intelligence and aptitude for learning, settles for a career unworthy of his gifts.

How do we know when our best self has emerged? There is a paradox here. As soon as we settle for our best self, we will have settled for something inferior to our best. There is the story of the conceited college freshman who came to realize how obnoxious his superiority complex was to persons he would like to have for friends.

He took stock of himself and reformed. Several years later he was able to say: "I used to be so conceited I was one of the nastiest persons in the college. But I got over it and I am now one of the nicest fellows in the whole university."

The fact is, the self-satisfied person is inadequate. As long as we live and breathe we have to grow into something better, for the best self is the growing, improving person.

Knowledge Can Be Dangerous

As if space exploration by humans wasn't difficult enough, now men have made it even more hazardous. They have added another radiation belt to the natural Van Allen belt that surrounds the earth.

Last July 9 the U. S. set off a thermonuclear blast at high altitude. The scientists had its effects all figured — on paper. It would spread radioactive debris in a limited belt that would soon collide with the earth's atmosphere and disintegrate.

But the results were somewhat different. The belt did not disintegrate and so now the world has a 1½ million electron volt band of radioactivity whirling about it. This is severe enough so that it has destroyed solar cells on three earth satellites.

But most serious, it would be lethal to any man passing through it unprotected. And it will pose a problem to be overcome by scientists trying to rocket men into outer space. The new radiation belt, according to latest calculations, will last for many years.

The problem here, as in other instances, is one of man knowing a little bit but not enough. A little knowledge is a dangerous thing, someone once said. How true this is men discover every time they probe the frontier of understanding of the world about them.

Remarks To Irk a Pro Gridder

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a pro football player gets tired of hearing:

"Let's put in Tiger McGurk—the games already lost anyway. He eats enough during the training season to last him all year."

"They nicknamed him 'three-yard McGurk' because, whenever he carries the ball, he never loses less than three yards."

"The only time he stays on his feet is when they play the national anthem."

"What we needed was a head blocker, and what we wound up with was a blockhead."

"Gee, it's nice of you to offer me this pass to watch you play in your next game, Tiger. But Frankly I'd rather stay home and rake the back yard."

"Sure, it's okay for you to hold down an outside job, Tiger. But that don't mean you can try to sell life insurance to the referee during a game."

"It's true he got off to a bad start. At the first practice they told him to tackle the dummy—and he tackled the coach."

"I wouldn't say he's delicate, but every time he bruises a hand-nail he heads for the sidelines."

"The only reason we haven't already traded you to Dubuque, Tiger, is that they don't have a team in the league."

"How's this for a trick play—let Tiger go out for a pass. The other team will never think we're that crazy."

"There's only one thing really wrong with McGurk. He's got a million-dollar body with a 10-cent mind."

"It has been so long since they put him into a game he's collecting unemployment insurance."

"Tiger, we've got to do something to get back some of the dough we put into you. How about you helping sell hot dogs between halves?"

"Here's a compass, McGurk. Now, remember, if you ever get your hands on the ball—run due north."

"Where's that doctor, Tiger just fell off the bench again."

"Wake up, Tiger. The games over."

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP)—A lot is riding on the new car models this year. The nation's merchants are optimistic about beating last fall's sales volume in the stores. But total retail sales will depend on how fast the new cars move out of the dealers' showrooms.

Total retail sales volume will have a lot to do in determining how the economy looks to the policy makers in Washington as they prepare their proposals for the next Congress. And final consumer sales tell the manufacturers what to expect and how high to set production schedules — and whether to hire or lay off workers.

So consumer-watching is a widely followed occupation, especially in time of uncertainty like these.

The rise and fall of the government's retail sales chart is watched closely. But there are those who think some improvement would make it a better tool for decision making.

A drop in auto sales is credited for the slight dip total retail sales took in the Commerce Department's retail chart in August. Seasonally adjusted the August sales were $19.6 billion, compared with the record July high of $19.7 billion.

In contrast the sales of nondurable goods rose to a high in August of $13.4 billion, up 1 per cent from July.

The new car models are expected to boost auto sales as dealers display them in the next few weeks—the question is: how much?

In the stores, all is optimism as fall approaches. The National Retail Merchants Association says a poll of 211 executives heading stores doing a $3-billion annual business show 71 per cent expected sales in the second half of 1962 to top year ago figures by at least 5 per cent.

They feel that consumers have the money and aren't afraid to spend it, although they may be more choosy in their purchases than some stores and some manufacturers will like.

The Department of Commerce adjusts its various figures seasonally. That is, it makes allowance for changing consumer habits—the time of year they buy this or that, the time they repay bills instead of shopping, and for the average weather conditions.

But a couple of New York University professors, Dr. William C.

Freund and Dr. Robert A. Kavesh, think the seasonal adjustments could be improved, if merchants, manufacturers and the public are to get a true picture of how things are faring with the economy.

Since unseasonable weather is one of the chief culprits not only in store traffic but often in industrial production, transportation and home building, the predictions frequently go askew.

"There is no reason why the Department of Commerce, together with the U.S. Weather Bureau, cannot issue a weather index which compares actual weather conditions with average weather conditions for geographic regions of the country. Such an index would provide a ready means for modifying the seasonal factors used in adjusting economic time series," the professors say.

Retail sales, housing starts, and other figures so adjusted would give the public a much clearer picture of what actually happened, rather than what should have happened under average weather conditions. Since the public tends to extremes of pessimism or optimism when the official figures don't come up to or exceed expectations, improvements in the methods of seasonal part in setting public psychology, and thus, to a degree, the economy.

In the Matter of the Estate of John Wesley Williams, deceased

Notice of filing of petition for granting original administration after 20 years. Notice is hereby given that on the 14 day of August, 1962, Kenneth M. Robbins filed his petition in the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio, asking that he be appointed administrator of the estate of John Wesley Williams, deceased, who died on or about the 22 day of June, 1939, residing in the Village of Orient of Pickaway County, Ohio, stating that although 20 years had expired from the death of the said intestate, that letters of administration should be granted to him for the following reasons:

Said decedent died seized in a fee simple in real estate situated in the Village of Orient, Ohio, which still stands in his name. An administrator should be appointed in order to sell the real estate to pay debts of the decedent and to make distribution of the proceeds of the sale according to law.

A hearing will be had in said court on said petition on the 14 day of September, 1962, at 10:00 a. m.

Bristle Brushes Best

Q. For several months I have been using a nylon hair brush. The more I brush the more hair I lose. Could it be the brush?

A. It sure could. Brushing with a nylon brush can have the effect of pulling some hairs out by the roots and breaking or fraying the ends of others. Both men and women have experienced loss of hair following the vigorous use of such brushes. Suggestion — change to an old-fashioned bristle brush.

No Normal Cholesterol Level

Q. What is the normal blood cholesterol level?

A. It is impossible to pinpoint the "normal" level. Laboratories use different methods of estimating cholesterol and even among healthy persons the range of values is quite great. It is always best to leave such matters to your physician, who is best qualified to decide whether cholesterol levels are high, low, or "normal" for any individual.

It is your right and privilege to have your prescription filled at a pharmacy of your choice. Choose wisely on the basis of professional competency and price factors.

Delivery

Q. I am a student nurse. One of my instructors speaks of delivering babies. Another says that doctors deliver mothers. Which is correct?

A. The word "deliver" may be used actively to mean the disburdening of one who is pregnant, and passively to mean giving birth. The doctor, then, can not deliver a baby. Why not say "The doctor delivers a woman of a child."

Ohio GOP Sets Strategy Talks

Platform Adoption Faces Convention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss called a strategy meeting of party leaders today in advance of GOP state convention sessions here.

Adoption of a platform is the major business of convention delegates at the afternoon session in the RKO Palace theater. Evening sessions feature an address by Congressman William E. Miller of New York, Republican national chairman, and major candidate for public offices.

Miller's talk will be broadcast over radio and television hook-ups starting at 8:30 p.m.

Seats were available for about 1,000 spectators in addition to some 2,000 delegates and alternates.

Bliss said he wanted to hammer home the importance of getting GOP voters registered before the Sept. 26 deadline to counter similar efforts by the opposition. Registration is required in all or part of 47 of Ohio's 88 counties.

Called into the closed luncheon meeting were county chairmen and chairwomen, state committee members and party nominees for legislative and congressional seats.

A 23-member committee under the direction of Senate Majority Leader C. Stanley Mechem put together a platform after a public hearing Tuesday.

Spokesmen for business, education and farm groups mainly called for party efforts to increase aid to schools and encourage a tax climate conducive to industrial expansion that would create new jobs.

Bliss said State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Republican gubernatorial nominee, was consulted by platform drafters. Proposals advanced by Rhodes to create new jobs and provide Golden Age villages for older inmates of state hospitals to relieve overcrowding won support at the hearing.

Headline speakers at the afternoon convention session included former U.S. Sen. and Gov. John W. Bricker, candidates for statewide offices, House Speaker Roger Cloud and Mechem.

Preceding Miller's evening address will be speeches by Rhodes, John Marshall Briley of Toledo, U.S. senatorial nominee, and introduction of congressional candidates.

Hi-Y Officers Set Plans for Training Camp

Circleville High School Hi-Y Club spokesmen this week attended a YMCA district council meeting in Columbus to help plan a training course at Camp Wilson next weekend.

Attending were three officers of the local Hi-Y Club: Carl Zehner Jr., president; William Clifton, treasurer; and William Meyers, secretary; and Robert Wellington, club adviser.

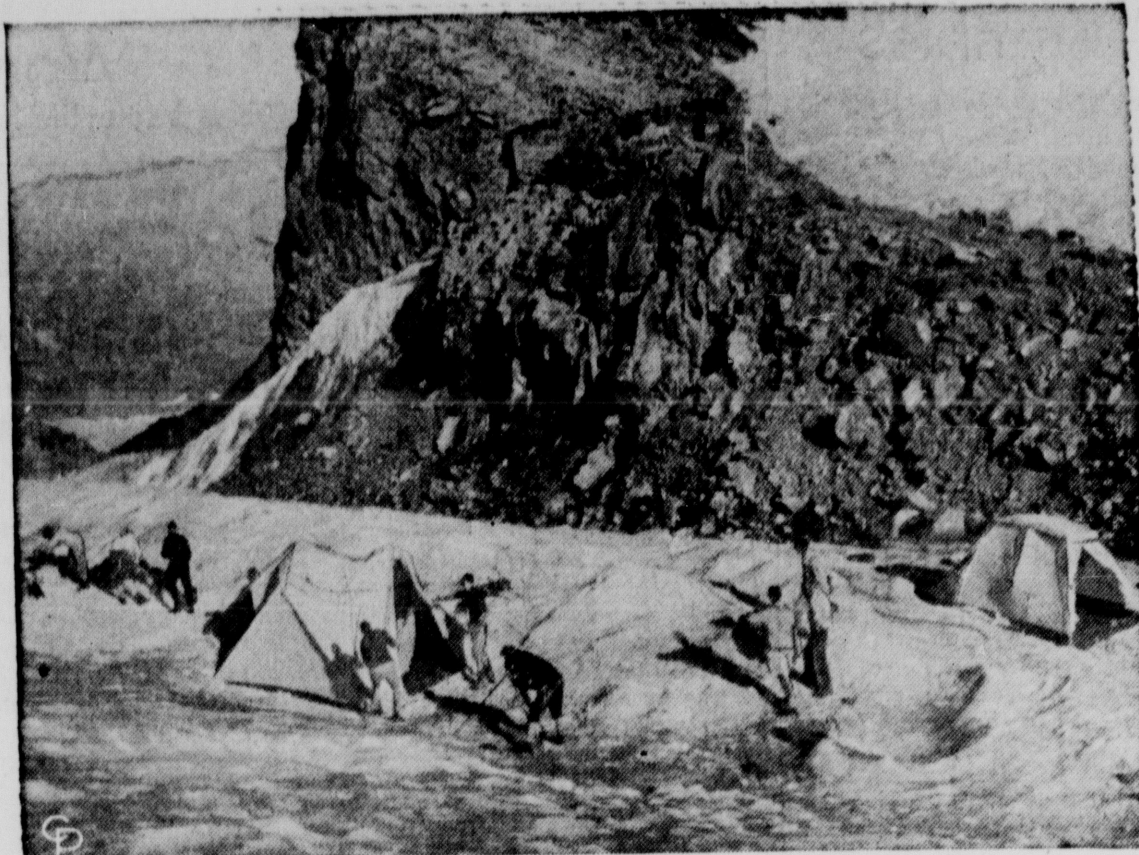

Other officers of the club are: Robert Fuhrman, vice president; Peter DeNeef, sergeant-at-arms; and David Thomas, chaplain.

Initiation ceremonies for new members will be held by the local club in the near future.

Darke County Villages Get Pollution Warning

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two Darke County villages, in which storm sewers are said to be polluting nearby streams, have had the law laid down to them by Ohio's Water Pollution Control Board.

The board denied a sewage discharge permit to Arcanum Tuesday. The village can appeal but faces a fine if some action is not taken. Bradford, which plans a bond issue if voters approve and other anti-pollution steps, was told to report its progress to the board Oct. 9.

MOUNT EVEREST PRACTICE—The American Mount Everest Expedition sets up Camp Muir just above the 10,000-foot level on Mount Rainier, Washington, to test food, clothing, equipment and techniques for a week. They hope to reach the 29,028-foot Mount Everest peak in the Himalayas sometime next May.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — Premier Khrushchev is such a good actor that when he shook his fist Tuesday over Cuba the immediate American reaction was what's he doing to us?—instead of noticing what he did to himself.

What he did to himself was to postpone once again a showdown over Berlin. The Russians said they were willing to wait until after the American election in November before resuming talks on the German city.

This was buried in a yard of threats and propaganda about Cuba.

It's been almost four years now since Khrushchev cooked up the first Berlin crisis, Nov. 27, 1958. He set a six-month deadline then for a settlement. At the end of that time, getting no action, he postponed the deadline.

Again in 1960, in the midst of pressing for a Berlin solution, he had a blow-up with President Eisenhower over the shooting down of an American U2 spy plane over Russia. Again he backed away from a showdown.

He said he could wait until after the 1960 presidential elections and deal with Eisenhower's successor.

In 1961, after his Vienna meeting with President Kennedy, Khrushchev set up another six-month deadline on Berlin. Again the deadline passed and Khrushchev said he had never intended it as an ultimatum.

If these pieces are put together they seem to indicate the Russians are no more anxious for a war over Berlin than the Americans are, although there can be no doubt the Soviets would grab the city if they thought they'd get away with it.

Khrushchev, never a slow-witted patsy, has to be concerned with how he looks to the rest of the world. This may explain to some degree why, when this country sounds tough, he tries to sound tougher.

On June 25, 1961, after his Vienna talk with Khrushchev, Kennedy in a nationwide broadcast showed his stern side. This may have surprised the Russian and was certainly popular in this country.

The President called for a military build-up and speed-up, with men and money.

Goodchild Firm Is Low Bidder

D. E. Goodchild, Inc., Circleville construction firm, submitted the apparent low bid for a Department of Highways project in Pickaway Twp. during a bid opening session conducted yesterday in Columbus.

The contrast will call for the replacement of a bridge and approaches on Route 361. Goodchild's bid was $169,307. The estimate was set at $184,900.

USE THE CLASSIFIEDS

Within less than two weeks Khrushchev was on the air talking to the Russian people. He called for an increase in Soviet military spending and a month later, on Aug. 13, ordered the Berlin wall built.

Neither side looked particularly happy in that one.

The West stood idly by, doing nothing to tear down the wall; and Khrushchev's wall was a sorry admission to the rest of the world that Russia had to wall in the East Germans to keep them from fleeing communism.

The West has been deadly tough with Russia for years, using a high-sounding approach called containment.

For years this country has set up military bases all around the edges of the Communist world and armed Russia's next door neighbors. It can be imagined what the American reaction would have been if the Soviets had tried to do that to this country.

It was only a matter of time before the Communists would try to break through the iron ring around them. They got the opportunity in Cuba when Fidel Castro took over and proclaimed himself a Marxist.

So far Castro has been a pain in the neck to the United States—mostly with his loud mouth—and, if the truth were known, probably a pain to the Soviets, too, since he's been wrecking Cuba and needs Soviet help.

Nevertheless, Cuba is a solid starting point for communism in the Western Hemisphere, the first it has had. In time it could be a true menace through spreading subversion in Latin America or even training guerrillas.

Just because Cuba is a Communist outpost Khrushchev could hardly afford, with the world watching, not to throw some kind of protective arm around the Cubans. This is exactly the same kind of protective arm this country has thrown around some of Russia's next-door neighbors.

So, this is the first chance Khrushchev had had to do to the United States what this country has been doing to Russia for years. For some reason he thought fit to boast, through a public announcement, about giving help, military and economic, to Castro.

Then Kennedy, with cries from Congress to do something, made a statement which sounded tough but was very vague. In effect, it told Russia and Cuba not to bother any other American country. Once more, on Tuesday, not to be outdone, Khrushchev got tough.

Huck Finn Couldn't Drift Down River on Raft Now

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Huckleberry Finn supposedly drifted down the Mississippi River on a raft in the middle 1800s, in quest of freedom and adventure.

If Huck tried the same trip today, he would find his movement hampered by locks and dams before he ever got to St. Louis.

Actually, the locks and dams are built to make navigation easier—not for rafts and Huckleberry Finns but for large commercial tows.

There are locks and dams at 41 points along the Ohio—from Pittsburgh, Pa., to Cairo, Ill.—although renovations eventually will reduce the number to 19. Last year commercial barges hailed some 80 million tons of cargo on the Ohio—nearly four times as much as 30 years ago, and a total undreamed of in the days when Mike Fink and Abe Lincoln floated keelboats and flatboats down to New Orleans.

But as steamboats replaced flatboats, heavier cargoes caused the need for a deeper channel all along the river, so shallow in places you could drive a buggy across it.

So a navigation plan for the river was conceived in the 1870s, and finally was completed in 1929 by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers—with locks and dams at 49 points and a guaranteed depth of 9 feet all the way from Pittsburgh to Cairo.

The system was outmoded almost by the time it was dedicated. Renovation already has eliminated eight of the old locks and dams. When the number is reduced to 19, a 12-foot channel will succeed the present 9-foot depth.

The new locks will be twice as long as the old ones, to handle the large tows.

Some of the new structures already are in operation. The newest is the Greenup Locks and dam, dedicated about a month ago. The next in line—Markland Locks and Dam, near Warsaw, Ky.—probably will be dedicated early next summer. Markland will do the work of five existing structures.

EUB Class Plans for Guest Night

Plans were made for a special guest night during the regular September meeting of the Loyal Daughters Sunday School Class of the First EUB held recently in the service center of the church.

It was announced that the guest night would be held at the October meeting. A carry-in supper will precede the affair at 6:30 p. m.

Also on the business agenda was a discussion of the annual Christmas Party. Time and place of the event will be announced later.

An election of new officers will be held during the November meeting and officers will assume their duties in January.

Contest winners were Marie Goodman and Jean Stewart. Devotional leaders for the evening were Mary Ann Willoughby and her committee, consisting of Maggie Mavis, Bess Simson, Ella Mae Arledge and Blanche Kerns.

Scripture was read by Mrs. Kerns and was taken from St. Mark 10:35-48. Readings were given by Maggie Mavis and Mary Ann Willoughby.

At the close of the meeting the committee served refreshments to 21 members and one guest.

Allen Home Is Scene of WCTU Meeting

Salem WCTU met recently in the home of Mrs. Durbin Allen, Circleville. Miss Mary Harpster, president, was in charge.

The group sang "Some Glad Day" followed by devotionals, Eph. 6:10-20 and prayer. A meditation, "Around the Elbow" was read by the president. Mrs. Ed Hinton gave her report.

The Hocking County Union invited the group to attend the county Convention September 19. Plans were made for the Pickaway County Convention to be held at the Salem Church, Meade, September 21.

Miss Harpster read "The Prevention of Alcoholism." Mrs. Allen gave the closing prayer.

The October meeting will be held in the home of Miss Edna Rice, Route 1.

Ashville Group Assembles

The Ashville Women's Civic Club met recently for their first meeting of the new year at the country home of their newly elected president, Mrs. Art Deal Jr.

Twenty seven members and twenty-one guests were present to hear five of the six delegates from Teay's Valley High School who attended Girl's State this past summer and also the recipient of the 1962 scholarship, awarded by the club, to a graduating senior at Ashville High School who was entering in the field of education.

Mrs. Deal extended a welcome to the group and invited the guests to give consideration to joining the club if they so desired.

The group repeated the club collect, followed with the singing of "America, the Beautiful." Miss Jody Ann Deal presented an accordion solo, "Butterflies in the Rain" followed by devotions by Mrs. William Trimble.

The president then introduced Miss Nelle Oesterle, guidance director for the past five years at Girls State. She in turn introduced the following five girls who attended: Ellen Kay Snyder, Janet Baum, Kathy Courtwright, Lynn Noecker, and Susan Hoffmann.

They each spoke briefly of their experiences and the offices they held while there. Their talks were very impressive and the girls considered it an unforgettable experience that will benefit them in many ways. They said, if at all possible, more girls should be represented from Teay's Valley High School next year, to share in this wonderful experience. It is the hopes of the club that they can sponsor more than one girl next year.

Miss Kathy Stout, a graduating senior at Ashville High School this past spring, and recipient of the scholarship, thanked the club for selecting her. She will commence this fall at Capital University, Columbus. She told why she selected this university over others she had considered and her experiences at Orientation Week at the University.

Mrs. Deal explained the duties and functions of the newly appointed committees. The club reviewed the program for the year in their new program booklets which were given each member at the beginning of the evening. Mrs. Alfred Axe, program chairman, thanked the many persons who helped in any way with planning and publishing the program, especially to Mrs. Warren Bastian, who sketched a picture of the former covered wooden bridge for the cover and Mr. and Mrs. Don Flieri for cutting the stencil and putting the program together.

The club voted to entertain the Senior Girls of TV High School to their May meeting with a varied program and tea.

Mrs. Helen Hedges reported to the club the various plays and musicals that could be attended for next months scheduled "Theatre Party" open to all members and their guests. Each member voted on her choice and the theatre planning committee will make the final choice and notify the members by phone or letter for their reservations.

That stew will benefit if you cook it in a tightly covered kettle. If the cover doesn't fit tightly, improvise by using a piece of foil under it.

34 Attend Tarlton WSCS Session

The Tarlton WSCS met recently in the church social room, with 16 members and 18 visitors present.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Carl Fry, president. The call to worship was Psalms 145:18-21 and "I've Found A Friend" was the opening song. The Scripture was St. Luke 1:46-55 followed by group singing "Jesus Calls Us." Mrs. Fry presented a missionary reading.

It was announced the new high had been purchased for the church kitchen. A donation was made to Supply Work and the group made plans for a bazaar to be held Nov. 14. The women of the church were invited to a bazaar to be held 7 p. m. October 6, at the Bethany Church.

The program consisted of a recitation by Elaine Turvey, and readings by Mrs. Edgar Turvey, Mrs. Ethel Reed and Mrs. Clyde Hedges.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dan Fogler, Mrs. William Fogler, and Miss Ethel Reed.

The next meeting will be October 3 with Mrs. Richard Ballard, Mrs. Ivor Karr, and Mrs. Dora Reichelderfer as entertaining hostesses.

Girl Scout Leadership Course Slated

Concentration on adults will be the order of the day for the Girl Scouts when the local organization conducts a Basic Group Leadership Training Course starting next Monday.

This course is primarily designed as a help to new leaders in understanding their duties and in planning their troop program. But it is also highly important to any adult working in Girl Scouting, because it teaches the history and background of Scouting, the basic aims and ideals as well as the means of achieving them.

Anyone 21 years of age or over, mother of a Scout-age girl or not, is welcome to this training.

It will be held in the Presbyterian Church Mondays and Thursdays, September 17, 20, 24, 27 and October 1, from 9:30 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. One day to be decided by the group, will be an outdoor day at Camp Miska.

Anyone interested in the training may contact Mrs. R. L. Brehmer Jr., 895 Atwater Ave., or Mrs. Ned Griner, 141 E. Union St.

Dear Abby:

by Abigail Van Buren

He's Cantankerous!

DEAR ABBY: My husband won't go to the grocery store to shop with me and he won't tell me what he wants to eat. He says he doesn't want to feel like he is in a restaurant ordering up what he wants. Yet he fusses about what I fix. When I ask him what he wants for lunch or dinner (he is retired) he says, "Just anything and when I start to fix it he says, "If you're fixing that for me, you can throw it out. He never gives me a clue even as to what he would like, but he expects me to have it on hand when I don't even know what it is. Have you a solution? I am 66 but feel like 100. He is 69 and acts like two.

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: Don't ask him what he wants—just go ahead and dish it up. If he's hungry, he'll eat it. I suspect he enjoys squawking more than eating.

DEAR ABBY: I am a woman of 55. I have been corresponding with a widower of 60 who lives in Kentucky. We have never met. He sent me a ticket to come down to see him as we have talked about marriage in our letters. My neighbor lady, who is also single, wants to go with me. She says she will pay her own way. You don't think she would try to take him away from me, do you? She is very good company, but I don't know if I could trust her.

KENTUCKY BOUND

DEAR KENTUCKY BOUND: A wise chick doesn't ask a rabbit to watch her carrots. Go alone.

DEAR ABBY: We try to teach our children the responsibilities of handling money by sending them to make small purchases, such as a loaf of bread or a quart of milk. It takes them forever to get waited on because the clerks wait on everyone else first. I have seen young people pushed aside, treated rudely and ignored in many stores. Clerks have even told youngsters to "step aside until all adults are waited on. What can be done about it?

CONCERNED ADULT

DEAR CONCERNED: When you witness a clerk treating a young person rudely, speak up. And if you encounter any resistance, see the manager. I am sure the reason many young people start taking things without paying for them is because they have difficulty being waited on.

Unload your problem on Abby. For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Mrs. Donald Vogel Is Host For Junior Women's Club

The Circleville Junior Women's Club September meeting was held recently in the home of Mrs. Donald Vogel, president, welcomed Mrs. Leroy Slusser, Miss Carolyn Fudge, and Mrs. Ronald Spence served as co-hosts.

New members present were Mrs. Robert Ransom and Mrs. Darrell Tague. Guests were Mrs. Maynard Eaton, Mrs. Charles Ransom, Mrs. Paul Reese, Mrs. Charles Resler, and Mrs. Jack Stodde.

Mrs. Jack Linton, chaplain, led the group in the club collect. Mrs. Donald Vogel, president, welcomed members for the year and briefly outlined the purposes and goals of the club.

Mrs. A. D. Page, corresponding secretary, read a note from Mrs. Kendrick Heckner thanking the group for their courtesy at the June dinner. A letter from Miss Terry Trone, Freshman Scholarship Winner for 1961, was also read. In her letter Miss Trone related some of her experiences and activities at Nursing School where she has completed her first year.

Mrs. Spence gave a resume of the program for the year which should be entertaining and educational.

The theme, "Back to School" will be conveyed throughout the year as the members attend a different class each month. Some classes will be lectures and others will require individual participation. At the conclusion of the year, the outstanding student of each class will receive a diploma in recognition of her accomplishment.

The president urged each member to attend the District VII Fall Conference of the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs which is to be held October 11 at the Nation Wide Inn, Columbus.

Mrs. Earl Wolfe was unanimously elected treasurer of the club for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Vogel, on behalf of the club presented Mrs. Maynard Slack a Past President's Pin as a token of appreciation for her term of president, 1961-62.

An interesting program of charm and poise was very ably presented by Mrs. Harry Turner assisted by Miss Sandy Ward. Mrs. Turner demonstrated the finer points of graceful walking, sitting, standing, and other facets of a charming appearance.

The meeting was then adjourned by singing the "Junior Pledge" led by Mrs. Richard Pettit. Refreshments were served.

EUB Class Plans for Guest Night

Plans were made for a special guest night during the regular September meeting of the Loyal Daughters Sunday School Class of the First EUB held recently in the service center of the church.

It was announced that the guest night would be held at the October meeting. A carry-in supper will precede the affair at 6:30 p. m.

Also on the business agenda was a discussion of the annual Christmas Party. Time and place of the event will be announced later.

An election of new officers will be held during the November meeting and officers will assume their duties in January.

Contest winners were Marie Goodman and Jean Stewart.

Devotional leaders for the evening were Mary Ann Willoughby and her committee, consisting of Maggie Mavis, Bess Simson, Ella Mae Arledge and Blanche Kerns.

Scripture was read by Mrs. Kerns and was taken from St. Mark 10:35-48. Readings were given by Maggie Mavis and Mary Ann Willoughby.

At the close of the meeting the committee served refreshments to 21 members and one guest.

Allen Home Is Scene of WCTU Meeting

Salem WCTU met recently in the home of Mrs. Durbin Allen, president, was in charge.

The group sang "Some Glad Day" followed by devotionals, Eph. 6:10-20 and prayer. A meditation, "Around the Elbow" was read by the president. Mrs. Ed Hinton gave her report.

The Hocking County Union invited the group to attend the county Convention September 19. Plans were made for the Pickaway County Convention to be held at the Salem Church, Meade, September 21.

Miss Harpster read "The Prevention of Alcoholism." Mrs. Allen gave the closing prayer.

The October meeting will be held in the home of Miss Edna Rice, Route 1.

14 Members Discuss Guild Bazaar Plans

Mrs. E. W. Weiler 355 Markley Road, was hostess for Berger Hospital Guild No. 21 Monday evening. The 14 members present discussed plans for the general bazaar to be held in November.

A letter from the general guild was read.

Bridge prizes were won by Mrs. Robert Picken, Mrs. Dwight Weiler, Mrs. E. D. Wood and Mrs. Weiler.

The next meeting will be 8 p. m. October 8 in the home of Mrs. Dwight Weiler, 214 N. Pickaway St.

Miracle of Faith Bears Much Meaning to T. W. Chappellear

The modern miracle of faith has a strong meaning for Thornton W. Chappellear, Circleville native.

Chappellear has a firm conviction in this Bible passage found in St. Mark: "What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them."

The Circleville son says he is a living example of the power in these words. He prayed for life when he was dying. He believed he would get well. And he did.

Chappellear does not attempt to tell that a miracle happened to him. But he does soundly claim that prayer requests do exist in order that they might be fulfilled.

The 65-year-old native disposes of any miracle claim, but tells at length of his total recovery from throat cancer.

TELLING his story now, Chappellear relates:

"I was standing in line for therapy one day, and standing there I found my conveyance to health. I leaned down and took out my shoe lace. Then I tied it into knots. And I started praying. With each knot I said the same prayer."

The prayer, he said, was an affirmation of his faith in the power of God and that he would recover.

The complete recovery of Chappellear, now a resident of Columbus, from epidermoid carcinoma of the larynx has been certified by the cancer clinic of University Hospital, Columbus, where the original diagnosis was made in 1954. He has been examined 14 times since his recovery. There is no evidence of cancer now.

Chappellear delves back to his experience in the operating room of the Dayton Veterans Hospital, minutes before the surgical removal of his larynx was to begin. Suddenly doctors attending a cancer clinic at the hospital decided not to perform the surgery.

"YOU'RE too far gone," he was told. "Every tissue and muscle in your neck is full of cancer. To remove it we would have to take off your head."

This marked the beginning of Chappellear's experience of faith—

Kerr Awarded Scholarship at North Carolina

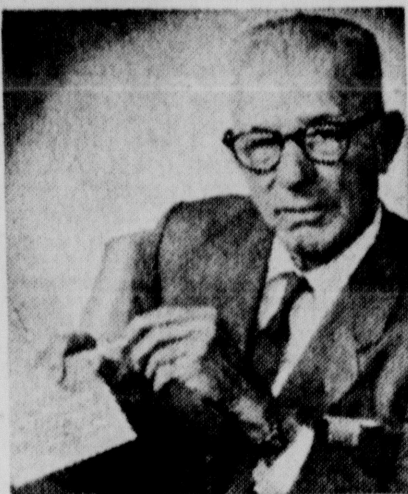

GEORGE D. KERR

George D. Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kerr, 419 Watt Street, is enrolled in Graduate School at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, N. C.

Kerr was awarded a graduate assistant scholarship in applied physics for the coming school year.

Prior to his enrollment at North Carolina State, he attended Morehead State College, Morehead, Ky. He was graduated in June with high honors there.

THORNTON CHAPPELEAR

a confirmed event he is now sharing with church groups and organizations to which he speaks and through a syndicated article written by Dr. Norman Vincent Peale.

In the days that followed the decision not to operate, the Circleville native was treated by intense x-ray therapy. He had not prayed since childhood, but began to do so then.

Then he found his "conveyance to health." "I can't tell you," he says now, "how many thousands of times I said my prayer. I carried the knots with me constantly and each time I touched a knot, I prayed."

Chappellear shortly reached a stage in his illness when he weighed only 85 pounds, and he was expected to die. The shoe lace knots had been replaced by a small length of rope. Though his sickness was so severe he could not talk, his "conveyance to health" was in constant use.

In a short time surgery again was suggested, but this time of a nature which ruled out the use of anesthesia. It was then, Chappellear claims, the knots he now called his "affirmation knots" that affirmed his faith in God, came to his aid. He said he prayed his way through the dreadful experience.

THE affirmation knots, says Chappellear, have no healing power. He calls them "conveyances" which reminds the people to whom he now sends them to pray.

With each knotted length of rope are four cards printed with Biblical texts and his interpretation of their meaning. On the fourth card he seals two mustard seeds, the amount of faith needed to begin to reach God through prayer.

Chappellear was born in Circleville in 1896 and lived his early years in a home on N. Court St. His father was publisher of the old Union-Herald newspaper, forerunner of The Circleville Herald.

At the age of 18 he left Circleville to attend school in Pittsburgh, Pa. Later he came back

Ohio Mother, Girl Die in Fiery Collision

BEDFORD, Ky. (AP)—The mother and girl friend of an Ohio youth took him to the University of Louisville to begin school, then perished in a fiery collision en route home.

Mrs. Emily Erma Woods, 38, of Amelia, Ohio, and Miss Sherry Lynn Pettis, 18, of Cincinnati were killed when their auto burst into flames after it and a fire truck crashed Tuesday on U. S. 42 three miles west of here, the fire truck, brand new, was being delivered from Columbus, Ohio.

Transfusions Ordered over Religious Ban

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A 3-year-old boy in critical condition in Mercy Hospital here with burns over 40 per cent of his body will be given blood transfusions if needed under a Juvenile Court order issued Tuesday.

Kenneth Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark of Bowling Green, was burned last week when he fell into a tub of hot water at his home. He was transferred to Toledo from the Bowling Green hospital Friday.

The parents are members of the Jehovah's Witnesses religious sect and do not believe in blood transfusions.

Dr. James G. Sullivan, a member of the Mercy Hospital Staff, went to Juvenile Court seeking an order permitting transfusions, if needed, without the parents' consent, but none have been necessary so far.

Juvenile Court Judge Paul W. Alexander asked the Clarks to appear in court for setting of a hearing to determine whether his order will stand.

Kentucky Boy Wins 4-H Tractor Crown

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — He weighs only 125 pounds, but 18-year-old Kenny A. Gerhard, a crewcut Kentucky farm boy, knows his tractors. Young Gerhard, from Augusta, Ky., won the Central and Western Tractor Operator Contest for 4-H Clubboys which wound up Tuesday at Ohio State University.

Ohio's Don Besecker from Greenville, 17, was eighth.

All Eligible Wool Growers Urged To Vote on Referendum

All eligible wool growers in Pickaway County today were urged to cast ballots in the referendum on the wool and lamb marketing-development program.

Galen D. Mowery, chairman of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said a large vote is desired in order to insure the most representative polling possible.

Growers eligible to vote are all those who have owned sheep or lambs, 6 months of age or older, for any one period of at least 30 days since Jan. 1, 1962. Polling will be conducted at the ASCS County Office during the two-week period Sept. 10 through Sept. 21. Voting may be in person or by mail.

The vote will determine whether or not deductions will continue to be made from producer payments under the wool payment program. These deductions finance a program of advertising, promotion and related activities to enlarge or improve the market for wool and lambs.

The promotion program is carried out under an agreement between the Secretary of Agriculture and the American Sheep Producers Council (a producer organization), as authorized by the National Wool Act.

A SIMILAR agreement has been in effect since the 1955 marketing year, following approval by growers voting in referendums 1955 and 1959. To be extended for the four more years for which the Act was extended in 1961, the September referendum must show approval by producers having at least two-thirds of the volume of production represented by the total vote.

Deductions under the new agreement would not exceed one cent per pound from shorn wool payments and five cents per hundredweight from unshorn lamb payments. These are the rates of deductions made in previous years.

Mowery said ballots have been mailed to all known wool and lamb producers by the ASCS county office serving the county where the producer's farm or ranch headquarters is located, and this county office is where the ballots should be cast.

If a ballot is mailed to the ASCS county office, it must be postmarked no later than Sept. 21 in order to be counted. If the ballot is cast in person, it must be received at the county office no later than the close of business Sept. 21.

Unemployment Data Change Seen Coming

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's top manpower expert said today temporary distortions caused the August jump in the nation's unemployment rate.

Seymour Wolfbein, Labor Department manpower director, said today he looked for a drop in the rate as the distortions correct themselves in September and later fall months.

Wolfbein announced today that the number of workers on non-farm payrolls rose by 225,000 to 55.7 million in August, a record for the month although an increase of 300,000 was seasonally expected.

The new figures furnished more details on the August job report last week which showed overall civilian employment at a record 69,762,000, a slight decline in unemployment to 3,332,000, and an increase in the seasonally adjusted idle rate from 5.3 per cent in July to 5.8 per cent in August.

Wolfbein said that an unusual drop in auto industry employment due to 1963 model changeover and the fact that a large number of people, such as teachers, were scheduled to take on jobs later, although counted temporarily as unemployed, were the temporary distortions he had in mind.

TODAY In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, Sept. 12, the 255th day of 1962. There are 110 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1918, U. S. forces began eliminating the St. Mihiel salient in the first battle planned and executed by this country in World War I. The first armored tank manned by U.S. troops was a French Renault tank used in this battle.

On this date:

In 1687, Pilgrim colonist John Alden died at Duxbury, Mass. In 1786, the English general defeated in the American revolution—Lord Charles Cornwallis—arrived in Calcutta as governor-general of India.

In 1866, Kansas State University was opened.

In 1908, Orville Wright made an airplane flight lasting one hour and 10 minutes.

In 1951, Gen. George Marshall resigned as U.S. secretary of defense and was succeeded by Robert Lovett.

Today's birthday:

French actor Maurice Chevalier is 74.

Thought for today:

The right of conquest has no foundation other than the right of the strongest — Jean Jacques Rousseau.

Goldberg Pledges Unbiased Decisions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arthur Goldberg pledged himself Tuesday to be fair as a Supreme Court justice, unbiased by his years of law practice as counsel to labor unions.

The former secretary of labor spelled out the promise at a hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee on his nomination by President Kennedy to succeed retired Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter.

Members of the committee, Republican and Democratic, gave Goldberg a generally friendly reception. He will return for further questioning on Thursday.

'LITTLE MISS Q' AND MOTHER—Here are "Little Miss Q," the waif found Aug. 20 in a downtown doorway in Indianapolis, Ind., and her mother (lower right) Mrs. Louis Littler, 27, and her grandmother (lower left) Mrs. Ruby St. Clair, 44, both of Chicago. They were arrested on neglect charges. They said they lost the little girl, Jeannie Lee Odum, 4, at the Indianapolis bus station while en route to Kentucky. She is Mrs. Littler's daughter by a previous marriage.

Kinda Hard To Find Movie Stars Visible in Movieland

This was enough to disturb the retired Kentucky postman sitting across the aisle.

"Just where is Hollywood, anyway?" he asked.

It's a question that bothers many of the three million tourists who annually seek the legendary glamor town.

Hollywood, they learn, is only the name of a Los Angeles postal zone. There are studios in the neighborhood, but they are making television films. Even most of the television film making is not being done in Hollywood, but in the area surrounding.

So the visitors take a bus tour—only to find that Disneyland isn't in Hollywood either—that's a separate tour in the other direction.

The compromise is the Hollywood-Beverly Hills tour. Its promoters promise that it will give a view of movie stars' homes.

The bus rolls west on Wilshire Boulevard. The driver acquaints his passengers with the insurance companies, department stores and churches along the thoroughfare. There's not a movie star in sight.

"We're going to Beverly Hills," the driver tells the passengers. "It's a city entirely surrounded by Los Angeles. That's where most of the movie stars live."

As the bus swings into the palm-lined streets of Beverly Hills, the passengers crane towards the plus homes.

"That gray one is Jimmy Durante's home—he's at Lake Tahoe now," the bus driver explains. "That's where Jean Hersholt lived before he died, that other one to our right."

"The green house on the corner—the one with all the foliage—used to be Dinah Shore's and George Montgomery's, until they were divorced. Nanette Fabray lives there now."

"There isn't a movie star around. In fact, there is no one in sight. Row upon row of homes—Spanish style, Tudor manors, modern rectangles—stand well-kept and silent."

The bus swings out of Beverly Hills and, at last, into Hollywood. Thursday: where to find a movie star.

Philos Lodge 64 To Send Delegates To Convention

Two members of Circleville's Philos Lodge No. 64, Knights of Pythias, plan to attend the State Convention of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias.

Attending will be Frank Woodward Jr., a delegate, and R. S. Denman, a member of the Grand Lodge's finance committee. The Convention is scheduled Sept. 26 through 29 at the Commodore Perry Hotel in Toledo.

Woodward and Denman will represent the local Philos unit. Denman is a trustee here and Woodward, lodge deputy.

The convention opens 8 p. m. Sept. 26 in the Ballroom of the hotel. The final session the business meeting, committee reports and installation of Grand Lodge officers — is slated for 9 a. m. September 29.

For Your Shopping Convenience . . .

GRIFFITH'S WILL BE OPEN 5 NIGHTS EACH WEEK
STARTING THURSDAY

Starting our new business year, we, at Griffith's, plan many changes which we feel you will like.

We will be open five nights a week, Monday through Friday for your shopping convenience as you have indicated that is when you want to shop, so we'll be here looking for you to come in and browse around. See the many nationally advertised furniture and carpets competitively priced for your selection.

Note that we open most days at one in the afternoon. Open five nights, and on Wednesday we are open only at night.

Lowest Prices Always!
Tell Us If We're Wrong.

Certainly price is a big factor. We will try to offer you price, service and satisfaction you will appreciate. If you think we are out of line on a price we would appreciate your telling us. We'll check it out.

You'll Get a Dividend . . .

Every customer of Griffith's who buys for either cash or on our budget plan will receive a dividend check in the mail to be spent like cash with no additional purchases necessary. Value of the dividend will vary from month to month depending on business but will always be at least five and three quarters percent of your purchases.

Periodically we will hold "Dividend Days" when you bring your check and spend it. Imagine, it's a bonus you'll love and we'll have lots of special buys for that day to make it even a happier day for our customers.

Be a Winner with Griffith's

Griffith's have many delightful merchandising surprises for you in the coming year.

Low prices, nationally advertised lines, dividend checks are just a few of the reasons you'll like to shop here in the coming year.

Now a husband and wife can shop nights, or a husband and wife to be will find Griffith's open in the evenings. Shop and save with an assurance of satisfaction on nationally known lines.

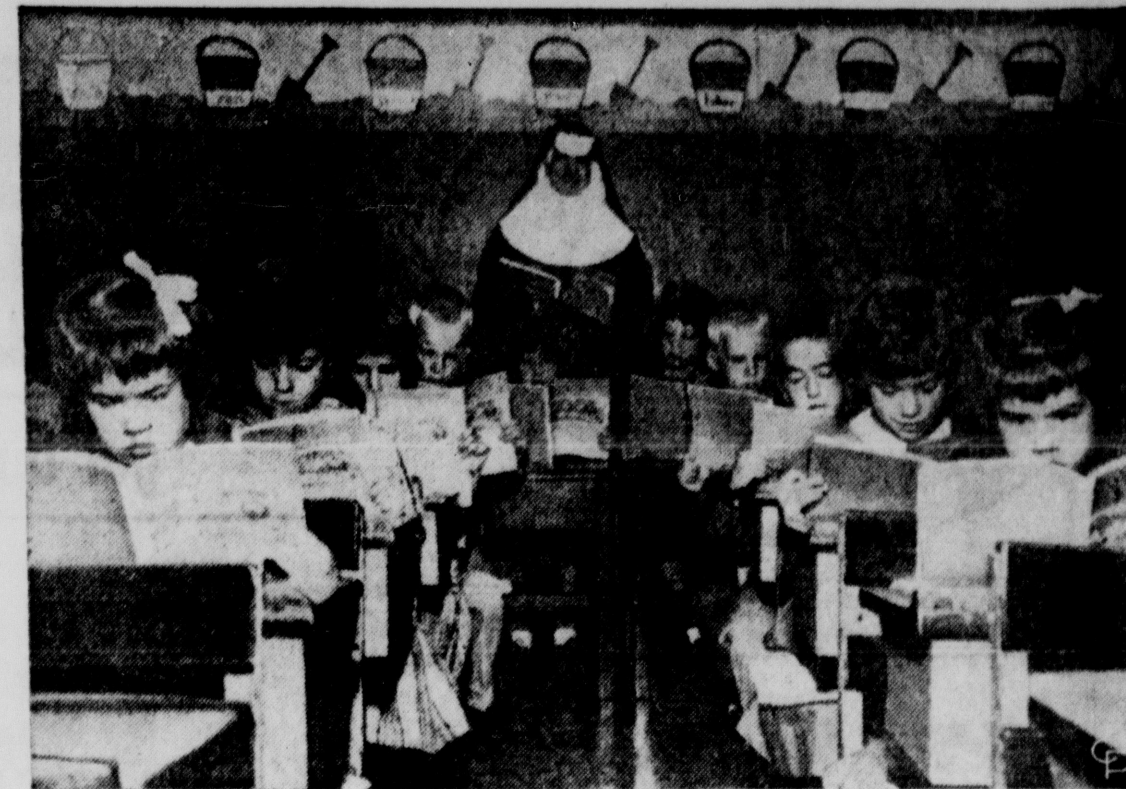

Success Seen In Negotiation With Castro

NEW YORK (AP) — Troubleshot James B. Donovan says he believes the Castro government of Cuba may be persuaded to free the Bay of Pigs invasion prisoners for humanitarian reasons.

Donovan, who represents the Cuban Families Committee for the Liberation of Prisoners of War, suggests the Cuban government might free the 1,100-odd prisoners in view of Cuba's compelling need for such necessities as "food and medicines for Cuban infants, children, the sick and the aged."

Donovan said he probably will return to Cuba shortly to resume the prisoner negotiations after he consults with his supporters here.

Donovan, 46, a Brooklyn lawyer, negotiated the release of U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers by the Russians in exchange for Col. Rudolf Abel, Soviet spy who had been imprisoned here.

SEEING DOUBLES—Mother Imelda stands behind five sets of twins she'll be somewhat puzzled at identifying for a while in her first grade class at Ascension School in Oak Park, Ill. They are (from rear) Pamela and Paula Dobberstein, Martin and Mark Spehn, Catherine and Thomas Gearen, Joyce and Joan McMahon, Patricia and Joan McHugh.

Ohio License Of Broker Is Revoked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The already suspended dealer's license of Commonwealth Securities Corp. has been revoked by the Ohio Division of Securities.

An investment securities firm, Commonwealth Securities Corp. has maintained offices in Columbus, Dayton, Cleveland and Cincinnati. W. Patrick Green, chief of the state securities division, said today he understands the firm will not try to reopen.

No attempt was made to appeal the 30-day suspension before the firm lost its license, Green said. He said the basis for the division's action is a state regulation requiring that brokers and dealers in securities maintain a minimum net worth of $10,000 and maintain records so that the firm's financial position can readily be determined.

"An audited financial statement of the licensee, filed with the division July 23, revealed insolvency and confirmed the findings of the division's investigation," Green said.

Ohio License
Of Broker
Is Revoked

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The already suspended dealer's license of Commonwealth Securities Corp. has been revoked by the Ohio Division of Securities.

An investment securities firm, Commonwealth Securities Corp., has maintained offices in Columbus, Dayton, Cleveland and Cincinnati. W. Patrick Green, chief of the state securities division, said today he understands the firm will not try to reopen.

No attempt was made to appeal the 30-day suspension before the firm lost its license, Green said. He said the basis for the division's action is a state regulation requiring that brokers and dealers in securities maintain a minimum net worth of $10,000 and maintain records so that the firm's financial position can readily be determined.

"An audited financial statement of the licensee, filed with the division July 23, revealed insolvency and confirmed the findings of the division's investigation," Green said.

U.S. Donations Of Excess Food Up by 30 Pct.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States donated 30 per cent more surplus food to the needy at home and abroad during the last fiscal year than a year earlier.

An Agriculture Department report shows the donations totaled 4,723,800,000 pounds, compared with 3,654,300,000 the year before. About 56 per cent went to people in some 100 nations.

The number of persons receiving assistance in this country increased slightly from 6,218,855 on June 30, 1961, to 6,410,929 on June 30, 1962. Not included in the latest figures were about 140,000 receiving aid through the experimental food stamp program inaugurated during the last fiscal year.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Farmers Union today blamed Congress, the American Farm Bureau and food industry groups for current attempts by the National Farmers Organization to hold farm products off markets to force higher prices.

In a statement, the union said failure of Congress to enact more effective farm legislation had caused widespread disappointment and frustration among farmers. Thus, it said, some sought to correct the situation by holding products off markets. It said the Farm Bureau and industry groups—by using large subsidies—must accept a great portion of the responsibility for Congress stand.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Government purchases of surplus dairy products are running nearly 40 per cent ahead of a year ago.

An Agriculture Department report puts total purchases between April 1 and Sept. 1 at about 996 million pounds, compared with 722 million in the same period a year ago.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Skies were absolutely clear over Ohio Tuesday night. Temperatures fell slowly throughout the night, and by dawn heavy dew was deposited from the saturated air while ground fog formed in the valleys.

Temperatures at sunrise today ranged from 47 at Zanesville to 56 at Dayton.

High pressure over Ohio today will bring fair weather. Afternoon temperatures will be mostly in the 80s.

It will remain fair tonight, but it will be a little warmer.

Cloudiness will increase slowly Thursday, and temperatures will continue in the 80s but with a rise in humidity as southerly winds increase in speed.

Lake Erie will be fair today with light winds, but small craft warnings may be hoisted Thursday.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

SOUTHERN & CENTRAL OHIO—Temperatures will average about five degrees above normal. Normal high 76-83, normal low 54-59. Warm most of period, except briefly cooler about Friday. Rainfall will total about one-fourth of an inch in scattered showers or thundershowers most likely toward weekend.

NORTHERN OHIO—Temperatures will average four to seven degrees above normal. Normal high 73-76, normal low 53-58. Cooler Friday or Saturday, warmer first of week. Rainfall will average two-tenths to four-tenths of an inch in scattered showers Friday or Saturday, again about Monday.

Haiti Threatens To Kick Uncle Sam in Shins

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Haiti's government, like a spanked child, is threatening to kick Uncle Sam in the shins.

Uncle Sam, in effect, has deprived him of his candy — and Papa Doc, according to responsible people who claim to have heard him say it, intends to "bring President Kennedy to his knees."

Papa Doc is the name many of the four million Negroes in this French-speaking nation apply to Dr. Francois Duvalier, their iron-fisted dictator-president. His regime is rapidly making progress backward. He is asking for trouble and seems likely to get it.

This storm in the Caribbean, blowing up for months, is worrisome because Cuba is only 50 miles away.

U.S. economic aid was suspended when Washington despaired of finding logic in the Duvalier regime. Military aid also has been halted. The regime, buzzing like an angry bee deprived of its nectar, rolls its eyes speculatively toward Moscow. Rumors are dropped in Washington, evidently by paid lobbyists, that the 55-year-old dictator has lost patience and will punish the Americans.

In reality, Duvalier fears the Communists. Cautiously he grants a little latitude to a few highly placed men with extreme leftist leanings. But he remains nervously alert to any sign of overt Communist activity.

Broadcasts berate the United States with brave, defiant-sounding talk. One gets the impression that Dr. Duvalier is a frightened man. His sole ambition seems to be to keep himself in power. He maintains a harsh gun rule, a perpetual state of siege.

Most Haitians are too involved with scratching out a living to pay much attention to politics. The per-capita income equals about $70 a year, making Haiti, among the oldest and smallest republics of the hemisphere, also its poorest. Ninety per cent are illiterate. Opposition is beginning to grow among the 10 per cent who can read and write.

A coffee republic with an agricultural economy, Haiti is hardly ready for modern democracy. Perhaps the best it can hope for is a benevolent strongman. The United States turned sour on Duvalier not because he is a dictator but because he attempted to use U.S. aid for political aggrandizement. He rejected checks on use of dollar funds for various aid projects. Today, only the old Point 4 malaria control program is continuing.

Duvalier reflects Haiti's history of political chaos. It was so dangerous in 1915 that the United States sent Marines to restore order. They remained until 1934.

Duvalier became president in a 1957 election denounced as fraudulent by his opposition. The physician-politician, who had close ties with Americans as a medical campaigner against tropical diseases, was supported by a military junta and declared president. Before long he, like many before him, took on the trappings of a dictator.

He remained loudly pro-American, however, even to the extent of inviting the Marines to return and train his army. Most of the help was in the noncombatant field—medical services, transport, communications, repair services. Duvalier's own policies impeded the program and may be wrecking his own army, one of the few stable forces in the nation.

The 57-man U.S. naval mission remains in Haiti, but it is just marking time.

Retired Persons' Housing Studied

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—If financing can be arranged, Dayton's Miami Valley AFL-CIO officials say construction can start next spring on an 11-story, 264-apartment building for elderly persons with better-than-subsistence retirement incomes.

President Al Gellenbeck said financial aid is being requested from the Housing and Home Finance Agency. An option on the property in northeast Dayton already has been taken, he said, and a

NEW YORK (AP)—The 1962-63 television season was off, although not exactly running, Tuesday night as CBS' "Lloyd Bridges Show" had its premiere.

Bridges is that good-looking young man who has entertained us for the past couple of seasons as the intrepid skindiver of "Sea Hunt." Each week he engaged in some underwater battling with assorted enemies, human and piscatorial.

Apparently his producers decided that a thoroughly dry Lloyd Bridges would be too much of a shock for the fans. So we first caught him standing unprotected in a drenching rain in his new role of Adam Shepherd, "writer of fact and fiction for newspapers and magazines, of short stories and novels."

Our hero was at the head of a mine where there had been a disaster, and everybody was talking about an unknown doctor who had gone down to administer to three trapped men.

Then Adam climbed into the doc's car and found a letter. All of a sudden he started to disappear in some sort of a twinkly effect on the screen and then emerged as a young doctor returning to his father's Greek village.

The program's weekly device will be that twinkly dissolve, so that Bridges will always be playing dual roles—Adam and some other character his fertile writer's imagination evokes every time he is confronted with a proper stimulus.

Recommended tonight: Howard K. Smith, ABC, 7:30-8 (EDT) — the news analyst will interview Adm. Hyman Rickover, critic of the American school system.

Teays Valley Seeks 2nd Win Friday at Walnut Ridge High

The Teays Valley Football team tangles with Walnut Ridge High School of Columbus Friday in the final non-league tilt on their schedule. The game will be played at Walnut Ridge.

Next week the Vikings open their Darby Valley Conference action at Triad Local in Madison County.

Although Walnut Ridge lost by a score of 20-0 to Columbus East last week, the Viking coaches feel the new Columbus high school is one of the toughest games on their schedule.

Marion Waites, head coach at Teays Valley, said the Walnut Ridge grid team has virtually the same starting lineup back from last year. He noted that they were coached by Ralph Webster, former coach at East High, and considered by many to be one of the finer high school football coaches in the state.

THE TV scouting report shows the team likes to pass. Against East, 18 of their 41 plays were aerials. They have two backs of better than average speed and they like to run wide and use trap plays.

The halfbacks are the favorite targets of the quarterback tossers. Waites said the Vikings will concentrate on their pass defense in practice this week.

The Vikings won their opening grid contest, 12-0, Friday against Ananda-Clearcreek.

The Walnut Ridge High School is located on Livingston Ave. on the east side of Columbus. This is the first year the school has had a senior class. The school is a member of the Columbus City League.

The Teays Valley marching band will make the trip for a halftime performance.

Reds' Little Shortstop Draws Praise

CINCINNATI (AP) — Even the Cincinnati Reds' opponents are beginning to give some grudging admiration for the Queen City's little shortstop, Leo Cardenas.

Cardenas got two hits and scored twice Tuesday night, helping the Reds pound out a 6-2 decision over St. Louis.

Marty Marion, who was one of the Cardinals' best known shortstops, said of Cardenas:

"He's got tremendous hands for a little fellow and can get a lot on his throws from most any position."

"But the surprising thing is the power he can generate for a little fellow."

Since the All-Star game, Cardenas has been second only to Frank Robinson in hitting prowess, upping his batting average 44 notches to .294 and hopeful to go higher.

The Reds were never behind Tuesday night, but they quickly blew an early two-run lead to home runs by Stan Musial in the first inning and Ken Boyer in the third.

The Reds got ahead again in the fifth when Cardenas led off with a double, sprinted to third on Bob Purkey's sacrifice, and Don Blasingame drove him home.

Bantam King Wins On 6th Round KO

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Eder Jofre of Brazil, the little man with lightning in his fists, is even tougher the second time around, Jose Mendel of Mexico ruefully decided today.

Two years ago in Los Angeles, Jofre knocked Mendel out in the 10th round. Tuesday night, Mendel stepped in the ring with Jofre in a scheduled 15-rounder for the world bantamweight championship.

This time, Jofre knocked Mendel out in 1:05 of the sixth round, a four-round improvement.

Jofre is unbeaten in 46 fights and now has run his knockout streak to 13. This was Jofre's second defense of his title since gaining clear-cut recognition as the world's top 118-pounder last January. He stopped Herman Marquez on a 10th round TKO on May 4.

Woodie Held's 18th homer in the seventh made it 2-0 and the Indians got their last run in the eighth on a single by Tasby, a double by Tito Francona and a wild pitch.

Ebenhack Pacers Set for Lebanon

Two pacers, Vanguard Pick and Abbe Vo, owned and reined by Emmett Ebenhack of Circleville, are entered in the harness race to-morrow night at Lebanon Raceway.

Vanguard Pick has drawn the number three position in the second race, a C-3 pace for non-winners of $1,000. Abbe Vo has the rail in the seventh race, a C-2 pace.

Sportsmen Ask Candidates' Views

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The League of Ohio Sportsmen called today for statements of policy from the two gubernatorial candidates outlining their views on conservation of natural resources, outdoor recreation and wildlife management.

Mel Balke, league president, said "this subject, broad as it is and in some way affecting all citizens of the state, should be given careful thought by our state leaders and it is important that the voter citizens be informed."

A resolution calling on Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and State Auditor James A. Rhodes to speak out on the subject was adopted, the league reported, at its September field meeting at the Erie County Conservation Club.

Colts Release Star Kicker

National Grid Teams Pare Rosters to Limit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Any big kick the Baltimore Colts have coming this year won't be done by Steve Myhra.

Myhra, who put the foot in Baltimore's football history with his clutch field goal in the 1958 National Football League title game, was released Tuesday as the Colts and other NFL teams pared their rosters to the regular season maximum of 36 players.

The Colts also asked waivers on veteran All-Pro halfback Lenny Moore, with the intention of putting him on the injured reserve list. Moore cracked his left kneecap last Sunday in an exhibition game and will be out for six to eight weeks.

Moore joins fullback Joe Perry, the NFL's all-time ground gainer on the injured list. Perry was hurt in an earlier exhibition game and placed on waivers. The loss of these two puts a serious crimp in Coach Weeb Ewbank's offensive plans.

Perhaps Ewbank didn't feel Myhra's loss would be as keenly felt, since he has veteran Dick Bielecki and rookie Wendell Harris of Louisiana State to handle the kicking chores.

In five years with the Colts Myhra booted 180 of 190 extra point attempts and 44 of 91 field goal tries for 312 points. Last year, he set a team record with 21 field goals and 98 points.

Myhra wasn't the only veteran cut Tuesday. The Detroit Lions trimmed three—fullback Johnny (O) Olszewski, end Glenn Davis and tackle Willie McClung. Olszewski, a 9-year vet, will be put on the injured list if not claimed.

Other veterans cut included line-backer John Tracey by Philadelphia, tackle Don Lawrence by Washington, fullback Merrill Douglas by Cleveland, tackle Nate Borden by Dallas and tackle Urban Henry by Los Angeles.

British Champ Seeks Crack at Welter Title

LONDON (AP)—Brian Curvis, British welterweight boxing champion, was in line today for a crack at Emile Griffith's world crown after his surprise victory over America's Ralph Dupas.

Promoter Jack Solomons said he was ready to put on a title fight after watching Curvis defeat Dupas, world's second-ranked challenger from New Orleans, on a sixth round disqualification at Wembley indoor stadium Tuesday night. Dupas was disqualified for butting.

Emil (Bus) Mosbacher, skipper of Weatherly in the America's Cup races, is a former commodore of the college sailing club at Dartmouth. He was graduated in 1943.

Squirrel Season To Open Friday

Pickaway County nimrods are expected to turn out in force Friday for the opening day of squirrel hunting season.

Henry Martin, the new county game protector, has explained that he has not been in the area long enough to determine just what the prospects for the season are in Pickaway County. However, he noted that statewide, Division of Wildlife fieldmen have estimated the squirrel population to be slightly better than last year.

Hunting hours are from daylight to dark and the daily bag limit is four squirrels. The possession limit after the first day is eight.

A 1962 hunting license is required. They are on sale now at various county locations.

Ohio is zoned for squirrel hunting again this year. The south zone remains open to hunting until dark on Nov. 10 and the north closes at dark Oct. 27.

THE GREATER portion of Pickaway County lies in the northern zone. The dividing line for the county is Route 159. Portions of Pickaway and Saltercreek Townships are southeast of this boundary.

12 New Faces Are Added to Browns Roster

CLEVELAND (AP)—The overhaul operation performed by coach Paul Brown after the end of the 1961 season has brought 12 new faces to the Cleveland Browns, and five of the new men are expected to see action in Sunday's opener here against the New York Giants.

Quarterback Jim Ninkowski heads a list of six veterans acquired by Brown in off-season trades.

In addition to the new veterans there are six rookies, one of whom, Ernie Green, came in a deal with the Green Bay Packers. Ninkowski came in the controversial trade that sent passer Milt Plum to the Detroit Lions. Two others acquired from Detroit who will play Sunday are Bill Glass, a defensive end, and Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy, the All-American from Ohio State.

Another new man is Tom Wilson, a Los Angeles Ram for six seasons before coming here. The hard-running back will play along side fullback Jim Brown in the spot filled last season by Bobby Mitchell and Tom Watkins.

Other veterans new to the squad are quarterback Frank Ryan, who came with Wilson from the Rams, and Charley Scales, formerly of Pittsburgh.

The 1962 Cincinnati Reds, after 128 games, had a better record than the pennant winning team of 1961 but were not in such a good position. They were four games behind Los Angeles at that point. Last year they were 1 1/2 games in front.

LE Braves Set For SVC Tilt At Paint Valley

Quarterback Jeff Lutz May Be Ready; Unit Sharpens on Defense

The Logan Elm Braves travel to Paint Valley Thursday for the first Scioto Valley Conference game for both teams.

There are four schools in the conference — Logan Elm, Laurelville, Paint Valley and Piketon — and they play a home-and-home schedule of conference games.

Keith Merrin, Logan Elm head mentor, says his team has been concentrating on defense, especially at the linebacker positions, for the game Thursday.

Merrin feels that many of the mistakes of the first contest have been corrected in practice this week and the Braves will be ready for the Ross County School.

OFFENSIVELY the Braves have been working on wide plays. Jeff Lutz, sophomore quarterback who injured a finger before the season began and missed the first tilt, may be ready to start Thursday at the field general position.

If he should start, Bob Parker, quarterback last week, will be switched to end, his regular position.

Paint Valley, under the direction of first year coach Ray Bethel, lost to Hillsboro 48-6 in its season opener. Bethel, a former assistant football and basketball and head track coach at Ashville High School, assumed the head grid position at Paint Valley this year.

The Bearcats have been hurt by injuries, lack of depth and inexperience this year according to Bethel. In their opening game they had only 12 players ready for action.

Their only score came with 1:29 remaining in the game. Fullback Mike Shoemaker, the lone bright spot in the Bearcat offense, climaxed a 45-yard drive by bulging over the two for a TD.

Teays Valley Seeks 2nd Win Friday at Walnut Ridge High

The Teays Valley Football team tangles with Walnut Ridge High School of Columbus Friday in the final non-league tilt on their schedule. The game will be played at Walnut Ridge.

Next week the Vikings open their Darby Valley Conference action at Triad Local in Madison County.

Although Walnut Ridge lost by a score of 20-0 to Columbus East last week, the Viking coaches feel the new Columbus high school is one of the toughest games on their schedule.

Marion Waites, head coach at Teays Valley, said the Walnut Ridge grid team has virtually the same starting lineup back from last year. He noted that they were coached by Ralph Webster, former coach at East High, and considered by many to be one of the finer high school football coaches in the state.

THE TV scouting report shows the team likes to pass. Against East, 18 of their 41 plays were aerials. They have two backs of better than average speed and they like to run wide and use trap plays.

The halfbacks are the favorite targets of the quarterback tossers. Waites said the Vikings will concentrate on their pass defense in practice this week.

The Vikings won their opening grid contest, 12-0, Friday against Amanda-Clearcreek.

The Walnut Ridge High School is located on Livingston Ave. on the east side of Columbus. This is the first year the school has had a senior class. The school is a member of the Columbus City League.

The Teays Valley marching band will make the trip for a halftime performance.

Reds' Little Shortstop Draws Praise

CINCINNATI (AP) — Even the Cincinnati Reds' opponents are beginning to give some grudging admiration for the Queen City's little shortstop, Leo Cardenas.

Cardenas got two hits and scored twice Tuesday night, helping the Reds pound out a 6-2 decision over St. Louis.

Marty Marion, who was one of the Cardinals' best known shortstops, said of Cardenas:

"He's got tremendous hands for a little fellow and can get a lot on his throws from most any position."

"But the surprising thing is the power he can generate for a little fellow."

Since the All-Star game, Cardenas has been second only to Frank Robinson in hitting prowess, upping his batting average 44 notches to .294 and hopeful to go higher.

The Reds were never behind Tuesday night, but they quickly blew an early two-run lead to home runs by Stan Musial in the first inning and Ken Boyer in the third.

The Reds got ahead again in the fifth when Cardenas led off with a double, sprinted to third on Bob Purkey's sacrifice, and Don Blasingame drove him home.

Bantam King Wins On 6th Round KO

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—Eder Jofre of Brazil, the little man with lightning in his fists, is even tougher the second time around, Jose Mendel of Mexico ruefully decided today.

Two years ago in Los Angeles, Jofre knocked Mendel out in the 10th round. Tuesday night, Mendel stepped in the ring with Jofre in a scheduled 15-rounder for the world bantamweight championship.

This time, Jofre knocked Mendel out in 1:05 of the sixth round, a four-round improvement.

Jofre is unbeaten in 46 fights and now has run his knockout streak to 13. This was Jofre's second defense of his title since gaining clear-cut recognition as the world's top 118-pounder last January. He stopped Herman Marquez on a 10th round TKO on May 4.

Woodie Held's 18th homer in the seventh made it 2-0 and the Indians got their last run in the eighth on a single by Tasby, a double by Tito Francona and a wild pitch.

Ebenhack Pacers Set for Lebanon

Two pacers, Vanguard Pick and Abbe Vo, owned and reined by Emmett Ebenhack of Circleville, are entered in the harness races tomorrow night at Lebanon Raceway.

Vanguard Pick has drawn the number three position in the second race, a C-3 pace for non-winners of $1,000. Abbe Vo has the rail in the seventh race, a C-2 pace.

Sportsmen Ask Candidates' Views

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The League of Ohio Sportsmen called today for statements of policy from the two gubernatorial candidates outlining their views on conservation of natural resources, outdoor recreation and wildlife management.

Mel Balke, league president, said "this subject, broad as it is and in some way affecting all citizens of the state, should be given careful thought by our state leaders and it is important that the voter citizens be informed."

A resolution calling on Gov. Michael V. DiSalle and State Auditor James A. Rhodes to speak out on the subject was adopted, the league reported, at its September field meeting at the Erie County Conservation Club.

Colts Release Star Kicker

National Grid Teams Pare Rosters to Limit

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Any big kick the Baltimore Colts have coming this year won't be done by Steve Myhra.

Myhra, who put the foot in Baltimore's football history with his clutch field goal in the 1958 National Football League title game, was released Tuesday as the Colts and other NFL teams pared their rosters to the regular season maximum of 36 players.

The Colts also asked waivers on veteran All-Pro halfback Lenny Moore, with the intention of putting him on the injured reserve list. Moore cracked his left knee-cap last Sunday in an exhibition game and will be out for six to eight weeks.

Moore joins fullback Joe Perry, the NFL's all-time ground gainer on the injured list. Perry was hurt in an earlier exhibition game and placed on waivers. The loss of these two puts a serious crimp in Coach Weeb Ewbank's offensive plans.

Perhaps Ewbank didn't feel Myhra's loss would be as keenly felt, since he has veteran Dick Bielski and rookie Wendell Harris of Louisiana State to handle the kicking chores.

In five years with the Colts Myhra booted 180 of 190 extra point attempts and 44 of 91 field goal tries for 312 points. Last year, he set a team record with 21 field goals and 98 points.

Boilermakers Called Title Contenders in Big 10 Race

By WALTER JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor
WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. — "Jack the Giant Killer" of Purdue — that would be Jack Mollenkopf — is readying another formidable Boilermaker squad this year and for the first time in several years the Boilermakers are not listed as "dark horses" but a definite contender for the Big Ten crown.

You have to get this perspective on Purdue elsewhere, of course, for Jack plays down this "loaded" ball club by saying that "people just don't know the facts. . . They say we're going to eat everybody up but we have a real line problem and we have question marks among the players who were injured or underwent operations."

Sitting in his office here, Jack read from a postcard sent him from the West Coast by a fan who told Jack that the Washington Huskies, the Sept. 22 opponent of Purdue, "are laying for" the Boilermakers and that Washington will pour it on. "Purdue edged the Huskies last year by a 13-6 count). Jack isn't worried because of the postcard but admits that on a recent visit to the Seattle World's Fair he heard some mighty high praise for the Washington team and realizes, too, that following this opener the Boilermakers have to meet Notre Dame on the Irish squad's own field. The Boilermakers had a fine record last year, winning six and losing three and just missing an undefeated season by seven points. And, with 28 lettersmen back, including Ron DiGravio, who scintillated as a sophomore quarter last year, the Boilermakers must be reckoned with.

"I admit that we're strong at quarter with DiGravio and Gary Hogan," says Jack. "And we have strength at fullback and we are in better shape at halfback than we have been for some time."

The line problem came with the graduation of end Jack Ellwell, tackles Larry Bowie and Pat Ross and both outstanding guards, Tom Krynski and Stan Szurek.

Mollenkopf's injury worry is based on the still-to-be-seen performances of fullback Tom Yakubowski, who cracked his ankle before the opener last year; Dick Dauch, another fullback who had knee operation; halfback Lang Marks, who suffered a knee injury in the spring, and Ron Meyer, a defensive specialist as a quarter, who suffered a broken leg.

Heading the Purdue line will be Don Brumm, 222-pound tackle who may be the No. 1 candidate on this club for All-American honors. With Brumm at tackle will be Ron Richnaffsky, 249-pounder but a fellow who has played little. Sophomore standouts are Jim Garcia, 229, Dom Calabria, 250, and Al Leopold, 240, who was hurt and needs an operation.

Don Brooks, who was ineligible last year, and Forest Farmer, co-captain, are the ends, with Sam Longmire, a sophomore from Alliance, O., rated highly.

Wallace Florence and Tom Kotoske are the first team guards but behind them are inexperienced men. Florence played 128 minutes last year but Kotoske saw action for only 66 minutes. Co-captain Donald Paltani, a veteran, is the center.

"DiGravio," says Mollenkopf, "is a fine quarter. He grew an inch and put on 18 pounds since last year and gives us a quarterback with size for the first time in many years. He doesn't have tremendous speed but he has fine poise and does the punting, too. He's a cool boy and calls all his own plays."

Walker was the workhorse of the backfield last year although Omer (Skip) Ohl, field-goal kicking expert, out-scored him, 32 to 24 points. Ohl, who never carried the ball, is back again. Bloom averaged six yards a carry for the 1961 varsity.

Among the sophomore hopefuls in the backfield are Tom Fugate, who was the 440-yard champion at Springfield, O., and Curtis Vick, from Braddock, Pa. Another who has shown promise is Charley King, a halfback from Alliance, O. This is a big squad, 82 turning out for practice and the line averages out to 213 pounds. Mollenkopf looks for Ohio State as the team to beat, says that "we've got our three toughest games away from home and we're limited to a 38-man traveling squad" and that "if we do as well as last year we'll be fortunate."

After the Washington and Notre Dame games, Purdue takes on Miami (O.), Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Michigan State, Minnesota and Indiana. The game with Indiana will be the 65th in the Old Oaken Bucket series.

New Hampshire GOP Governor Denied 3rd Term

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In a slam-bang primary, New Hampshire Republicans have vetoed Gov. Wesley Powell's bid for a third term and Rep. Perkins Bass claimed the GOP Senate nomination in a four-way race that went to the wire.

It was a tempestuous end to one of the wildest political campaigns in the state New England state's history and was the most eye-catching of the primaries in nine states Tuesday.

Powell's shot at renomination was cut off by John Pillsbury 44, a former utility executive. Pillsbury will run in November against John W. King, Democratic leader of the New Hampshire House.

But it was the New Hampshire Senate scramble that caught fire. Unofficial figures had Bass squeezing by Dolores Bridges, widow of the late Sen. Styles Bridges. The contest was over the nomination for the last four years of her husband's term.

Also-rans were Rep. Chester E. Merrow, a liberal Republican, and conservative Sen. Maurice J. Murphy Jr., who holds Bridges' seat in this session.

Minnesota also turned out a high-voltage contest as 24-year congressional veteran H. Carl An-

State To Hike Payments to Needy Aged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State payments to needy aged and to nursing homes providing maximum nursing care are scheduled to be increased, effective Oct. 1, if the Controlling Board approves Thursday.

Welfare Director Mary Gorman has announced plans for distribution of some $2.6 million in increased federal funds made available by recent federal legislation. The money, covering the nine-month period Oct. 1, 1962-June 30, 1963, would go for $2 boosts in monthly checks to about 67,000 individuals on the Division of Aid for the Aged rolls and for $10-$20 raises in per-patient nursing home payments covering about 6,000 more elderly persons.

Of the $2 individual increase, $1 would be for food and $1 for clothing. Aid for the Aged chief Thomas D. Weiler said these would be the first such increases in eight years for food and 10 years for clothing.

State-approved nursing homes in most of the state, now getting about $160 a month per patient, would get $170. In Southeastern Ohio areas where the rates are lower, $125 a month, the boost would be to $145.

Argument in Opposition to the Amendment

Read this amendment carefully—it is a clever attempt to benefit Lawson Milk Co., a corporation owned by Consolidated Foods of Chicago. Notice the tail end of the amendment. Lawson has included its products, which cannot legally be sold on Sunday, with the other items which can legally be sold on Sunday. Lawson simply wants you to vote more business for Lawson. Is it any wonder why they doggedly push this amendment?

You will lose if you allow this amendment to pass. Open the door a crack and soon other clever men will force it wide open. Next year the clothing stores may try to push a similar amendment in your face. This time, retail groceries; next time, clothing. What next?

This amendment will begin the collapse of something special—Sunday. Sunday will be just another working day. On Sunday you should be able to attend church with your family, picnic, or go fishing. You are free—you should not have to work on Sunday. Your state law now guarantees you this right: Sunday is a day when the entire family, together with the entire community, can rest and worship and play. This is important to us; to some men the dollar is more important. Pass this amendment and you will be kept on the job some Sunday by an employer who has no choice but to meet the competition.

Lawson simply wants more business. The religious beliefs and social customs of many thousands of people in the retail food business make no difference to Lawson. Businessmen throughout Ohio, however, have stood by their convictions and refused to support this amendment. In fact, the only organized support we know for this proposed change comes from Lawson.

As leaders of churchmen, businessmen, and workingmen, we urge you to oppose this Sunday amendment. Committee against the amendment—Bishop Hazen G. Werner, Rev. Father George A. Fulcher, Cecil Dunlap, John C. Turner Jr. and Harold Freedlander.

DiSalle Says GOP Reneges On Promises

CINCINNATI (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has rapped the last Republican legislature for what he said were failures to make good on 1960 campaign pledges.

On a campaign tour through Hamilton and Clermont counties Tuesday, the governor said the GOP promised to cut state taxes and spending.

"What did they do?" he asked. "They didn't repeal a single cent. They found out it was impossible for them to do."

"Since that time, the GOP-dominated Controlling Board has been restoring the funds that originally were cut during budget deliberations."

The governor hammered away at a favorite theme that Ohio has more children to educate and more teachers to pay, and the cost of education is soaring.

He said the legislature cut $2.5 million from proposed money for higher education during the current biennium and "every state university has had to raise tuition because of this savings."

In Cincinnati, he said he was proud of the State Highway Department for putting under contract more than $1 billion in highway improvements in the past 3½ years.

Harsha Reports

Release of Approved Funds Sought To Bolster Economy

Congressman William Harsha (R-Ohio-6th Dist.) today charged that the Administration could provide an immediate shot in the arm for the economy by releasing more than $600 million already approved by Congress for Veteran and Rural Housing.

Despite a request from the House Veterans Affairs Committee, the Administrator has made no effort to release $450 million in funds provided for direct loans for Veterans Housing, Harsha said.

Another $153 million is still available to the Administrator under the Farmers Home Administration, Harsha pointed out. Congress originally provided a total of $430 million for Rural Housing but only $182 million has been obligated during fiscal 1963. $152 million of this amount was not made available until September 7, which was after the $900 million Emergency Public Works Bill passed. Approximately $95 million was obligated in fiscal 1962.

Harsha said, "I cannot understand why the Administration refuses to release money for veterans and the remaining amount for Rural Housing in the United States but announces it is guaranteeing $5,250,000 for Housing in the South American Country of Colombia."

"It is not because there is a lack of veterans who need and want the Housing loans. Nine hundred applications have been approved by the Veterans Administration office in Cincinnati alone. There are over 40,000 applications pending in VA offices over the nation.

"All that is needed is the green light from the Administration to complete these two programs, one which would build homes for veterans and the other, construct homes for persons living in rural areas."

"At the same time, many thousands of unemployed will find jobs. Why the Administration has not used these two programs to stimulate the economy is a mystery."

Also a mystery, Harsha said, is why the Administration "practically begged Congress" to pass the special $900 million Emergency Public Works Bill — allegedly to be used to stimulate the economy — when it refuses to utilize the $600 million still available for housing.

"Perhaps those who claim the $900 million appropriated under the Emergency Public Works Bill is a political 'slush' fund for projects that will be authorized to help elect Democrats are right," Harsha declared.

New Hampshire GOP Governor Denied 3rd Term

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In a slam-bang primary, New Hampshire Republicans have vetoed Gov. Wesley Powell's bid for a third term and Rep. Perkins Bass claimed the GOP Senate nomination in a four-way race that went to the wire.

It was a tempestuous end to one of the wildest political campaigns in the state New England state's history and was the most eye-catching of the primaries in nine states Tuesday.

Powell's shot at renomination was cut off by John Pillsbury 44, a former utility executive. Pillsbury will run in November against John W. King, Democratic leader of the New Hampshire House.

But it was the New Hampshire Senate scramble that caught fire. Unofficial figures had Bass squeezing by Doloris Bridges, widow of the late Sen. Styles Bridges. The contest was over the nomination for the last four years of her husband's term.

Also-runs were Rep. Chester E. Morrow, a liberal Republican, and conservative Sen. Maurice J. Murphy Jr., who holds Bridges' seat in this session.

Minnesota also turned out a high-voltage contest as 24-year congressional veteran H. Carl An-

State To Hike Payments to Needy Aged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State payments to needy aged and to nursing homes providing maximum nursing care are scheduled to be increased, effective Oct. 1, if the Controlling Board approves Thursday.

Welfare Director Mary Gorman has announced plans for distribution of some $2.6 million in increased federal funds made available by recent federal legislation. The money, covering the nine-month period Oct. 1, 1962-June 30, 1963, would go for $2 boosts in monthly checks to about 67,000 individuals on the Division of Aid for the Aged rolls and for $10-$20 raises in per-patient nursing home payments covering about 6,000 more elderly persons.

Of the $2 individual increase, $1 would be for food and $1 for clothing. Aid for the Aged chief Thomas D. Weiler said these would be the first such increases in eight years for food and 10 years for clothing.

State-approved nursing homes in most of the state, now getting about $160 a month per patient, would get $170. In Southeastern Ohio areas where the rates are lower, $125 a month, the boost would be to $145.

Argument in Opposition to the Amendment

Read this amendment carefully—it is a clever attempt to benefit Lawson Milk Co., a corporation owned by Consolidated Foods of Chicago. Notice the tail end of the amendment. Lawson has included its products, which cannot legally be sold on Sunday, with the other items which can legally be sold on Sunday. Lawson simply wants you to vote more business for Lawson. Is it any wonder why they doggedly push this amendment?

You will lose if you allow this amendment to pass. Open the door a crack and soon other clever men will force it wide open. Next year the clothing stores may try to push a similar amendment in your face. This time, retail groceries; next time, clothing. What next?

This amendment will begin the collapse of something special—Sunday. Sunday will be just another working day. On Sunday you should be able to attend church with your family, picnic, or go fishing. You are free—you should not have to work on Sunday. Your state law now guarantees you this right: Sunday is a day when the entire family, together with the entire community, can rest and worship and play. This is important to us; to some men the dollar is more important. Pass this amendment and you will be kept on the job some Sunday by an employer who has no choice but to meet the competition.

Lawson simply wants more business. The religious beliefs and social customs of many thousands of people in the retail food business make no difference to Lawson. Businessmen throughout Ohio, however, have stood by their convictions and refused to support this amendment. In fact, the only organized support we know for this proposed change comes from Lawson.

As leaders of churchmen, businessmen, and workingmen, we urge you to oppose this Sunday amendment.

Committee against the amendment—Bishop Hazen G. Werner, Rev. Father George A. Fulcher, Cecil Dunlap, John C. Turner Jr. and Harold Freedlander.

DiSalle Says GOP Reneges On Promises

CINCINNATI (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has rapped the last Republican legislature for what he said were failures to make good on 1960 campaign promises.

On a campaign tour through Hamilton and Clermont counties Tuesday, the governor said the GOP promised to cut state taxes and spending.

"What did they do?" he asked. "They didn't repeal a single cent. They found out it was impossible for them to do."

"Since that time, the GOP-dominated Controlling Board has been restoring the funds that originally were cut during budget deliberations."

The governor hammered away at a favorite theme that Ohio has more children to educate and more teachers to pay, and the cost of education is soaring.

He said the legislature cut $2.5 million from proposed money for higher education during the current biennium and "every state university has had to raise tuition because of this savings."

In Cincinnati, he said he was proud of the State Highway Department for putting under contract more than $1 billion in highway improvements in the past 3½ years.
